My most sincere and grateful thanks to my nephew
Ben P. Robinson and to his son-in-law, Vern T.
Lemon for their efforts in having this book published. Especially to Vern for his untiring efforts and hard work over a long period to prepare this book for publication.

EXPLANATION OF ANCESTOR AND GENERATION
KEYING SYSTEM USED IN THIS FAMILY HISTORY

Since this book was essentially prepared for our immediate family the ancestor and generation keying system is based upon the direct ancestor and children of JESSE B. ROBINSON 2nd 1 and his wife HELEN COX 2.

All direct ancestors are keyed in sequence, with their key number under lined and placed following their name, which is always printed all in capitals. Since they are in sequence and number backward the generation from JESSE ROBINSON 1 and HELEN COX 2 can be determined from the key number as follows:

Generation	Index Numbers
1	1 - 2	Jesse B. Robinson and Helen Cox
2	3 - 6
3	7 - 14
4	15 - 30
5	31 - 62
6	63 - 126
7	127 - 254
8	255 - 510
9	511 - 1022
10	1023 - 2046

All children of JESSE 1 and HELEN 2 are keyed by an underlined letter from A through J.

The easiest way to determine the relationship of direct ancestors is to look at the family tree chart. It can also be determined without the chart by the following procedure. All odd key numbers are direct ancestors of JESSE B. ROBINSON 2ND 1 and all even key numbers are direct ancestors of HELEN COX 2. To determine the key number of the parent of any direct ancestor, simply multiply that ancestors key number by two and if the original number was odd, then add one to the result to keep it an odd number.

All other persons listed in this book are indexed according to their relationship to one of the keyed direct ancestors or children. For example, on page 166 is listed a Naomi Ann Cox with a key number of 16-2-1-7. This person is the 7th child of the 1st child of the 2nd child of CARY COX, SR. 16, a direct ancestor.

On page 36 is listed a Margot Elizabeth Black with an index of G-1-1-2. This person is the 2nd child of the 1st child of the 1st child of ANNIE ROBINSON HOLSTUN G, who was the 7th child of JESSE 1 and HELEN 2.

Lee Co., Ala.

JESSE II was born in Milltown, Ala. in 1845. He attended boarding school at West Point, Ga. until he enlisted in the Civil War.

He entered service March 1, 1863 in Tennessee and was discharged April , 1865 at Aiken So. Carolina. He was a cavalryman in the 8th Confederate Battalion commanded by General "Fighting Joe" Wheeler. He was wounded in the battles at Chickamauga, Rassaca, Ga., and Aiken, S. C. He signed an Amnesty Oath to the United States on 8-31-1865, in Chambers Co., Ala. He helped organize the Waverly Camp #1672 of the United Confederate Veterans and was its first commander.

After the Civil War, he moved to Elmore Co., Ala., with his father to help establish a new plantation. He returned to Chambers Co., Ala., now Lee Co., by 1870. Upon his return he purchased the Bigerstaff plantation next to the Lee-Talapoosa County line.

He married shortly after in 1871 and he and his wife lived in the original plantation house until their death. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at this home in 1921, with a reception attended by seven children and twenty grandchildren.

He was one of the largest farmers in Lee Co., a trustee of the school district and a Justice of the Peace. His wife, HELEN, was instrumental in establishing schools in the area, and taught many of her grandchildren and neighbor children in classes she held in her home.

He died in Opelika at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. O. Maulsby, after a six week illness. He was buried in his Confederate uniform in the cemetery of the Canaan Primitive Baptist Church next to his wife, who had died earlier that year. Both were members of the church since 1871. After all the children left home they spent the winter months in Opelika th their daughters, Dousies and G. O. Maulsby.

The experiences of JESSE B. ROBINSON II in the Confederate Army were often told to his children. The following are narratives written by two of his children:

By: Willis Cox Robinson

My father, Jesse Berryman Robinson, attempted to enlist in the Southern Army in the "War Between the States" in 1861. He was 15 years old at the time and was turned down because he was too young and too small. In the winter of 1862 when he became heavy enough to enlist, he did so.

The first company he was in was Company "E". He was later in Companies "I" and "K" in the Eighth Confederacy. He was under the command of Col. Prater and General "Fighting Joe" Wheeler of Alabama.

As cavalymen smoked practically all the time, a soldier was detailed with Father, teaching him to smoke.

He had practiced shooting a pistol until he was an expert.

The night before the Battle of Chickamauga, September 19th and 20th, 1863, Wheeler's Cavalry camped across the Chickamauga Creek near Reed's Bridge. They went into battle early next morning going southwest into the battlefield and Father received his first wound in that battle. A little southwest of where the Alabama monument now stands, Father was wounded. He showed me the place during the dedication of the monument.

A bombshell tube hit his big toe of his right foot. He got off his horse and picked up the tube and put it in his pocket. (The tube is in the Archives at Montgomery, Ala. placed there by my sister, Mrs. Helen R. Graves). A few minutes later, a minnie ball hit his sabre and broke it against his right hip and thigh.

He fought through the battle to and through "Bloody Pond" near Lytle, just north of Wilders Tower. The cavalry on both sides fought with empty pistols as clubs in hand to hand fighting, also used sabres. Father's sabre being broken, he used his pistol as a club. The soldier's faces were so dark from tearing small containers of powder with their teeth to reload their pistols, one could not tell who anyone was except by their uniforms. After sundown, a pond of blood and water had formed in the flat section giving it its name.

That night they cut Father's boot off and doctored his foot.

There was quite a bit of scouting in and about Chattanooga. I don't remember the exact dates. A Fourth Michigan Cavalryman who fought in Bloody Pond told me that a group of his companions who were camped in North Chattanooga were detailed to go to Dalton, Georgia and burn the Confederate wagon train and supplies. They went, but he admitted that about the time they got there heard "Wheeler is coming" and rushed away, not doing a good job. He said "when we heard that Forest was coming, we knew we had to fight, but when we heard Wheeler was coming, our faces would break out with sweat, because we expected the fight at once."

In the retreat through North Georgia, Father in crossing over a creek at Resacca, Georgia on slabs laid on crossties on a railroad bridge had his horse's front foot slip between the slabs and hurt his knee badly. Near that time he had the measles. I don't remember whether he was cared for in Camp or in Dalton, Ga.

Down somewhere near Kinnesaw Mountain north of Atlanta, Father was ordered to report to Gen. Morgan. He found Morgan lying on a pallet in his tent talking to Gen. Wheeler. Father only being 17 years old, Morgan asked Gen. Wheeler "do you propose to trust these papers in that lad's hands?" Wheeler replied: "Col. Prater selected Rob and knowing him personally as I do, I don't believe I know of a better man." One reason of Father's selection was he was an expert shot. After some questions and instruction about destroying the papers if shot by the enemy, Morgan ordered him not to spare his horse, promising another if his horse was ruined, and gave instructions on how to get to Gen. A. P. Hill. Father was allowed to fill his canteen from a jug of whiskey setting beside Morgan's pallet. The whiskey was to be used only after he had delivered the messages, or destroyed them if severely wounded.

While riding through, he stopped at a house and asked for "Buttermilk" and asked a lady if she had seen any "Rats". She said "two just ahead." Being a cold morning, Father took his saddle blanket off his horse mainly to cover his uniform as he knew he was in enemy territory. He rode on to Gen. A. P. Hill who was on a ridge with field glasses watching an infantry battle in the valley below. When Father delivered his message to Gen Hill, Hill complimented him on his being two hours earlier than the time given. When Gen Hill opened the papers, Father asked for the General's field glasses. Hill gave them to him and Father watched the infantry battle while Hill read the message. After Gen. Hill gave him a verbal reply, he instructed Father to retire as minnie balls were flying all around them. Gen. Hill said, "No need of two men exposing themselves unless necessary.

The promised horse was not found waiting for Father and he being tired of riding a sore back horse, heard that Grandfather had him a good horse. After the Battle of Jonesburrough when Hood succeeded Johnston and because Father had the horse of a cousin killed in that battle; he tried to get a furlough to go home to deliver his cousin's horse and get his new one. Father, having failed to get a furlough and since Hood had started on his wild goose chase back up into Tennessee, like many others, Father left without leave. He swam his horse across the Chattahoochie at Fillpots Ferry and went home.

After Father had rested up a while, he helped to organize and train a company of old men and boys. When Gen. Johnston succeeded Gen. Hood and called for the return of his men, two other soldiers on leave like Father started back to Gen. Johnston at West Point, Ga. They had to get a pass to go on not having furloughs. They decided to prove they were trained cavalrymen, so they got out in the main street and began knocking off each others hats and picking them up by whirling in the saddle with their horses at a gallop. A crowd gathered to watch them and someone pitched out a 25 cent piece. They picked it up several times until they felt they had satisfield the crowd and the soldiers watching them. One of the three asked Father to ride into a bunch of turkeys on a hill nearby, saying he would pay for the ones he missed, and in undertone told Father to kill only about three or four. Father rode in a gallop up into the turkeys and shot three times taking the top of the heads off two turkeys and unjointing the neck of the other. Thinking that they had satisfied the crowd, Father was elected to get the passes. An officer whom you could hardly tell his rank by his uniform, proved to be Gen. Tyler in charge of West Point. Father told him his business and was asked to Tyler's office upstairs. Gen. Tyler asked him for his furlough. Of course Father told him he had lost it. After some discussion he got a pass. He told Gen. Tyler the two men holding his horse were as brave as ever faced with the enemy and had lost their furloughs and wanted passes too. He got them and they went on to Johnston.

The three soldiers went back and the final battle in which Jesse B. Robinson fought was near Aiken, S. C. A minnie ball passed through his thigh a short distance above his knee, shattering the thigh bone. His comrades advised him that the Yankees would get to him before he could be taken eight miles to Aiken, S. C. He had them give him a drink, put him on his horse and he rode the eight miles to a church in Aiken being used as a hospital. There he was taken off his horse and carried to the church door. When he saw the treatment of the men, using saws, etc., because they had no better means, he refused to go in and he was finally put in the Pastor's study. This room was being used for the dead.

While waiting his turn in the dead room, a preacher who appeared at the hanging of Sam Davis and at other times of slaughter, kneeled and examined Father and his wound. He asked Father his age. Father told him 19 years old and he said: "Don't let them cut your leg off, you are too young and in good health to lose it." At Father's request he gave him his saddle bags containing a pistol and some whiskey. The men in charge wanted to amputate the leg, but Father used his pistol in hand and saved the leg which lasted him until he died at 77 years of age.

My father was the first Commander of the Waverly, Alabama, Camp of the Confederacy.

He went thru the War as "Rob" to his comrades.

By: Helen Robinson Graves F

My father, Jesse Berryman Robinson II, born in Milltown, Alabama, was a young fellow when the "War Between the States" started. At the time my Grandfather had him away in West Point, Ga., at a private boarding school for boys.

Spending his first Christmas at home, he found his two older brothers home from the War. William, a Captain and Thomas a Lieutenant, both in the cavalry, were in their uniforms and carrying swords and pistols. This appealed very much to his young mind as he asked his father to let him join up. Of course Grandfather sent him back to school but before the term was over he ran away from school and joined a Georgia Company.

Many interesting episodes happened to him. He had a horse shot from under him and another one received a broken leg. He played in the snow and had to be hospitalized at Rassacker, Ga. He was in Company K, 8th Confederate Cavalry at the Battle near Aiken, S.C. when a Minnie ball struck him just above the knee. He did not realize he had been shot until some one called to him that blood was running from him down over his boots and called his attention to it. He was taken to the rear where he received some first aid. He was told he could not get back to the Confederate Hospital without being captured anyway, so he was told to ride eight miles into Augusta, Ga., where the Yankees had a Hospital in an old Church. On arrival he was placed near where they were operating and treating the wounded. He could hear the cries of the men so when he refused to go in, they put him elsewhere. An elderly Preacher or Doctor came to him and asked him how old he was and he told him he was 19 years. Then he was advised not to have his leg taken off, that he was too young, and that his youth would help him through. Later when they came for him he asked what they intended to do. When they said amputate his leg, he insisted they were not to do so and that he was told to wait for this older Doctor who would care for him. He was taken care of by the older Doctor, and with some trouble finally was able to be out of the Hospital on crutches when the War closed. Later he was told he could go home if he signed allegiance to he United States, but he stated he would sign when he arrived home. He wrote his father they would discharge him and for him to come for him. Grandfather took his carriage driver and went to Augusta, Ga. for him. On arrival Grandfather asked him to see if he could get his horse, which had been taken by the Yankees. When father asked the Officer in charge, he laughed at him and said, "Boy, we don't know which horse is yours." Father said, "If I can prove to you which is my horse, will you let me take him?" Father has lost so many horses in this War, he needs this horse on the farm." He was taken to the Commanding Officer and told if he could prove to the Officer in charge which horse was his, he could have him. So he and the Officer went to the enclosure where the horses were kept and father called "Monk, come here", probably once or twice, and Monk came to him. The Officer in charge said, "Boy, you have chosen one of our finest horses. How did you know what name to call?" Then father said, "I will go out here and lie down and when I call to him you let him come to me." This he did and when he called, "Monk, come," the horse walked over to him. Father then said, "Monk, down, down Monk". The horse got down on the ground beside father and he and his crutches climbed up on him. The horse got up gently and walked back to the Officer who said, "I believe that is your horse." So Grandfather tied the horse to the back of the carriage and they went back to Milltown. You see, the Slaves had taught the horse to lay beside on command so if father was ever hurt on the battlefield, he could climb on and get away.

There is some discrepancy between the two narratives concerning Jesse Robinson's final injury. However, the following information taken from his Alabama Confederate Pension application supports his daughter's rendition.

Entered War March 1, 1861 from Mill Town, Alabama. Wounded: Three times.

1st. Resacca, Ga. Knee cap.

2nd. Tunnell Hill. Tube of Minnie ball struck foot and large toenail removed.

3rd. Aiken, S. C. Left limb, bullet split bone three inches above knee. Entered Hospital at Augusta, Ga. Feb 12, 1865. Discharged on crutches Feb. 23, 1865.

Home on furlough when war ended.

The following was written by the Author, Mrs. Helen Graves F :

My mother, Helen Evelyn Cox Robinson, was the baby of ten children, and was especially fond of her father, Willis Cox. She told us children many stories of his experience in trading among the Indians and plantation life before the War Between the States. She said her father never allowed a slave to be punished by his overseers; they could correct and show them how and why, but whip them or punish them in any other way was done by him. The Overseer would bring them to him and explain their offense, and he would administer whatever punishment he deemed necessary. The colored women would even bring their children to him for correction or punishment when they were caught stealing fruit or watermelons. He usually took the child behind the house to administer the correction. The little colored children had learned to jump up and down and say "Oh Mas Willis, Oh Mas Willis." Grandfather never allowed anyone to pull the fruit from his young trees, as he said there were plenty of older orchards to furnish fruit. As he had planted seed from an especially good apple or peach, he wanted to let the first fruit ripen and see if it would be worth propagating further. Mother said she had been told never to take the first fruit from a special young tree near the house, but it hung so long and was so pretty and tempting that one day she took this beautiful apple from this young tree near the house and ate it. Said she remembered it was very delicious. When Grandfather came home, it being gone was the first thing he noticed. When he inquired if anyone knew anything about it, she had to admit to taking it. He explained to her he would have to punish her as he had the little colored children. So he got a switch and took her out behind the house to the tree.

Upon the first lick with the switch, she too jumped up and down and hollered "Oh, Mas Willis" and that one lick was the only one she received. He took her into the house to his wife and they explained to her that she was their own little girl and she must always be obedient and set an example to the other children. He never switched her again, but that was one time she never forgot and was always amused at the outcome. She always spoke in the highest terms of what a just and fair man her Father was.

Grandfather not only had an Overseer for the fields, but for the ginning, spinning, weaving, housekeeping, cooking and sewing room. While Grandmother was the main Overseer of the latter five, each had a trusty slave woman to run and supervise under her. But the Tan Yard, making leather, shoes and boots, was run by a Mr. Allgood, who was a well-educated, refined and intelligent family man. Since the War had taken all the young men in the country, he persuaded my mother to teach the young children growing up in the neighborhood. He and Grandfather fixed up the school house and notified the neighborhood there would be a school. Mother said she would come by the Tan Yard every day to give Mr. Allgood a report of the days proceedings. He was most kind and helpful in advising her how to handle any situation arising.

After the War, Mr. Allgood took his family to a cross roads between Roxanna and Notasulga and built a beautiful home and store. This developed into a quite large community known as "Allgood," which even had a Post Office when I grew up.

Mother's next experience in teaching was in 1868, according to a letter she wrote to her Cousin Dora Potts who had married Gus Crawford, Sr. There were four little girls left orphan when James Potts was killed in the War Between the States, as their Mother Sophie Brooks Potts had also died. Grandmother took the oldest and youngest in her home to rear with her children. So Mother had grown up with them and loved them as sisters. Dora was born the same year as my Mother, and by 1868 had married Mr. Crawford of Nashville, Tenn. Mother was having a lively time, as she said in her letter, "First I'll tell you where I am and what I am doing. Sis Mary has been teaching school at the Academy, but she is now sick and I am teaching in her place. Taught last week and am regularly in this week. Sis Mary has been sick about three weeks, had a hard chill yesterday, was right sick last night when I got home from school".....

"The girls are carrying on at such a rate that I have to laugh all the time. Beck Alvis is in school and is one of the liveliest things you ever saw. I can hardly write for her...." "There is to be an 'Arithmetical School' next week and thank gracious I won't have to teach school. I don't like to teach at all. I will attend the school through next week."

My Mother married in 1871 and started a large family of ten children and she taught every one of them. When my older brothers grew up, she taught them at night, also, the neighbor boys. They would all work in the fields during the day, come home, feed their horses, clean up and then come to classes at night with her boys. There was no pay in this, but Mother said her boys had to associate with the neighbor children, so she wanted them educated. She held classes in the day time for her girls and the neighborhood girls. If bad weather came up, the girls would remain the night unless the parents came for them. This didn't bother the three of us younger sisters. We would get off in another room and play games and have a good time. Later the County paid my Mother a nominal sum for teaching. She taught at Canaan Church, but it was hard to keep warm in the winter, even though a corner of the church had been partitioned off with a good wood stove. Later my Father used one of his tenant houses for a school room, affording much more comfort to all. Mother taught long after her youngest child was born. Whenever I used to attend meetings or public gatherings at home I had people say to me "Miss Helen, I'll never forget your Mother's sayings in writing copies on my slate for me."

BIGERSTAFF PLANTATION

The Bigerstaff Plantation was purchased by Jesse B. Robinson II in 1870. It was family tradition, handed down from Jesse, that the home was originally built around 1830 when the land was still claimed by the Creek Nation. Deed records indicate that it was among the first permanent farms established in eastern Alabama.

The original house was twenty by thirty with a half-story sleeping loft above. Later, a ten foot hall was added to the side and rooms were added on making four large rooms each with a chimney. Stairs in the hall led to the upper room. A dining room and kitchen formed an L, with porches on both sides, and a ten foot wide veranda with columns across the front. Visible in the attic loft were thirty foot long hand hewn beams and rafters. All of the framing was joined by wood pegs driven in hand drilled holes.

In front of the house was a grove of oak trees. In the rear a grove of pecan and hickory trees led to a large spring. Also in the rear were the slave quarters, the foundations of which could still be seen as late as 1900.

CHILDREN AND DECENDENTS OF JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON II AND HIS WIFE HELEN EVELYN COX

The following are the brothers and sisters of the author, HELEN ROBINSON GRAVES, and their descendants. All were born near Waverly, Lee Co., Alabama. On July 27, 1951 the family held a large reunion at their childhood home. All of the brothers and sisters, ranging in age from 59 to 78 years, were still living and attended.

A. JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON III

B. MARY EVELYN ROBINSON b. 4-25-1874 Waverly, Ala. d. 5-23-1955 Birmingham, Ala.
Never married. Buried in Canaan Cemetery.

She attended East Alabama Institute at Notasulga, Ala., where she studied painting and voice. She then entered Auburn University as one of the first six girls allowed receiving a B. S. degree in 1899. She graduated with honors and was elected the Poet Lauret of the class, the only office allowed a women at that time.

After graduation she taught school in Salem, Brewtom, and Sylacauga, Ala. In 1903 she moved to Birmingham, Ala. and became the Principal of Ensley High School. She taught at Bessemer High School 1905 - 1906, at Phillips High School 1906 - 1930, and 1930 - 1944 at West End High School where she was head of the science department. After her retirement in 1944, she taught art and crafts in the Birmingham Park Program.

When she began teaching in Birmingham, she enrolled in Howard College, eventually receiving an A. B. degree and in 1937 an M. A. degree. She attended one semester at Columbia University and University of Chicago. She was working on her Ph. D. when ill health forced her retirement.

She was featured as the "Alumnae of the Month," by the Auburn University Alumni News of June, 1948, Vol. 3, No. 3. The magazine contains a long article on her accomplishments and has her picture on the cover.

She lived at first at the Ridgely Apartments, but when she was asked to take the Science Department at West End High School, she bought a home at 536 Princeton Ave., West End and lived there until she died.

She was an artist, author and had published numerous short stories and two books of poems. Her sister, Helen Graves, has a number of her unpublished short stories and poems written after her retirement. She was President of the Alabama Writer's Conclave, and twice won a first prize for the following poem in an Alabama Federation Women's Club contest:

"In Christmas rush, its hard to find
Just what would please, time after time
I'll buy some 'hankies'---wait and see
What others give, Then these from me.

He walked right home with Santa's box
Of 'hankies', shirts, and ties and socks;
With cigarettes, and even toys
That he can use to make a noise.

An envelope fat with "MAZUMA"
And shining bottles of good humor,
What he has not, there isn't any-
I'll give for luck a bright new penny!"

She was a charter member of the Alabama Academy of Science, and belonged to the University Women of Alabama. Held offices in seven State Educational Societies. She was a member of the D. A. R., United Daughters of the Confederacy, and was President of the Quivive Club of Birmingham several times, the oldest literary club in the city. She sang for several years in the choir of the Episcopal Church of the Advent, although a member of the Baptist Church. She was a member and worker in Patriotic, Political, Educational and Civic Clubs in Birmingham.

Despite some "eyebrow raising", she organized and coached the first girls basketball team in the Birmingham High Schools and was the Chaperon to and from the games. She also escorted her class on hikes of study tours. Took a group down to Mulga Mines, but never did they allow women in mines again. Some said it was bad luck.

She conducted or assisted Mrs. F. C. Alexander of Birmingham on many student tours thru the West and in Europe during her summer vacations. She spent the entire summer of 1927 in Europe. She was Maid of Honor at the Reunion of Confederate Veterans, held in Washington, D. C. in 1918. This reunion was humorously referred to as "the only time they ever took Washington."

EDITORS NOTE:

Exercising the editors' prerogative to change a book as one sees fit, I have written the following narrative on Mrs. Helen Graves. From the voluminous source materials used for this book, I could see that her autobiography was much too modest.

This remarkable woman would not adhere to the inactive gentility expected of women in rural Alabama in her generation. She has admitted she raised a few eyebrows in her time, starting with riding side saddle in her youth, to 1962, when after a near fatal car accident she instructed her plastic surgeon to hurry and get on with it as she had plans she did not wish interrupted. One of her nephews commented, "I doubt very seriously that she will attend her own funeral, she just won't admit it's time to quit."

Helen Graves graduated from High School in Birmingham, Ala. She entered and graduated in 1913 from Birmingham Teachers Training School, Kindergarten Section, and taught in the Birmingham Public Schools and at the Southern Industrial Institute at Camp Hill, Ala, which was located only eight miles from her home in Waverly. Between 1920 - 1927 she taught in the Public Schools of several communities in Alabama and Western Florida.

In 1927 she moved to Chattanooga, Tenn. and enrolled at the Baroness Erlanger Hospital Training School for Nurses, graduating in 1930. During her summer vacations from nursing school attended several summer schools in Auburn, Ala. and was a supervisor of a Playground Program in Birmingham. Her recreational training was under Mr. Z. Nesper, who afterward became National Director of the Play Grounds of America. One summer she was the Hostess at Riverdale Lodge at Mentone, Ala.

After graduation as a nurse, she spent the summer of 1930 at Camp Glancy with the Chattanooga Girl Scouts. She became a Captain of Girl Scouts with her certificate being signed by Juliet Lowe, the founder of the Girl Scouts. Then in the summer of 1931 she was the Camp Nurse at the Juliet Lowe Girl Scout Camp on Lookout Mt.

She was the Director of Education in 1930-1931 at the Baptist Hospital in Birmingham, Ala., and then for three years at the West Side Hospital, Scranton, Pa. She then moved to New York City with some of her classmates for Post Graduate Studies at Polytechnic and Medical College. Then moved to Oklahoma as Director of Education at two different nursing schools. She then accepted an excellent offer as Director of Education at Brightlook Hospital, St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

She continued her education while working and attended Mary Wood College in Scranton, Pa., and had taken extension courses from the Univ. of Pennsylvania. After leaving Vermont, she enrolled at the Univ. of Penn., taking special work in teacher training for development of "Home Nursing" and "Care of the Sick" programs.

She loved to travel and took advantage of every opportunity. Made extensive tours of the west, east, Canada and Hawaii, much of this traveling was done before extensive tourist accommodations and paved roads existed. She stated that everyone ought to ride over a gravel road in a nineteen twenties era car for a few days to really appreciate modern travel.

She moved to Chattanooga, Tenn. to be near her daughter, but the damp and cold winter of Chattanooga aggravated a sinus condition that started in Vermont. Her Doctor advised her to move to the West Coast of Florida. She sold her house and moved first to Lakeland, Fla. for the winter and then to Clearwater, Fla., which has now been her home since the spring of 1943. She did private-duty nursing until she was critically injured in a car accident on June 16 1962. After a prolonged recuperation and plastic surgery, she became active again.

She joined the American Nursing Association and League of Nursing Education on entering her profession, joining in each state, as well as affiliating with the local nursing organizations wherever she worked. On arrival in Clearwater, Fla. she and three other nurses worked to bring a much needed official nurses registry to the area. When she first came to Florida, she was appointed to the State Chairmanship of the Education and Legislature Section of the American Nursing Association where she served untiringly. She was Chairman of Private Duty Section in District 13. She worked to establish a new District 33, and in 1964 that District of Florida Nurses made Mrs. Graves an Honorary Member.

During her active civic and professional life, she had joined the Educational Association, Eastern Star in 1920, Altrusa Club in 1931, (Charter member in Birmingham and Clearwater, Fla.) Business and Professional Womens Club (Scranton and Birmingham). Chairman of the League of Women Voters and President of P. T. A. while teaching in Alabama. Joined the United Daughters of the Confederacy and was Secretary of the Chapter at Waverly. Joined the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1919, Nat. #149509 on John Evans. Her Mother, Helen Cox Robinson, who started this family genealogy and had previously worked up several ancestors who served in the Revolution, did not join until 1920, when she found her Great Grandfather, Rev. Cary Cox Sr's service in Halifax Co., N. C., Nat. #157234.

In Clearwater she joined several civic organizations and was made Regent of the Clearwater Chapter D. A. R. 1950 - 1952. Became a member at large and Organizing Regent and Regent of Cary Cox Chapter D. A. R., an evening chapter for business and professional women. Served fifteen months as Regent until June 1954, and then Registrar until 1964. Still active and served as Chairman of State several times and in 1964 was given a life membership in the Cary Cox Chapter, D. A. R. with all State and National dues paid for life. Member of the Baptist Church.

In 1917 she was "Maid of Honor" at the Alabama Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in Mobile. Chaperon to the U.C.V. meeting in Washington, D. C. in 1918.

She was listed in Who's Who of American Women in 1964. Her local newspaper, the Clearwater Sun, did a feature article on her in its Sunday issue, honoring her as an Educator, Nurse, Clubwoman and Civic Leader. She was president two terms of the Parliamentary Club of Clearwater, and still serves other organizations as parliamentarian. She belongs to thirteen patriotic organizations. Organized and served two terms as President of the Lachaway Chapter of the United States Daughters of 1812, in Tampa, Fla. Was elected a Regent of John Donaldson, Jr. Chapter, U. S. Daughters of the American Colonies, in Tampa, Fla. Very active in the Mary Custis Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and has been Secretary and State chairman. Belongs to a number of Genealogical Societies and was an organizing member of the Southern Genealogical Society.

She has been interested in genealogy, making it her hobby for around twenty years. Her interest was sparked by the amount of family material that her mother had accumulated and came into her possession. She has worked dilligently and spent substantial funds to secure the information contained in this book.

Age is forcing her to close up her work on her family, to insure that the records will not be lost or destroyed.

She resides at 707 Pennsylvania Ave., Clearwater, Fla 33515.

ANCESTOR FAMILIES OF
JESSE BERRYAAAN ROBINSON II

ANDREW ROBERSON II 63

b. 1654 Scotland d. 2-19-1720 Douglasville, Pa.

m. ca. 1685 MARY SPENCER 65 b. 1666 d. 11-12-1716 Philadelphia, Pa.

ANDREW came to America about 1676 with his uncle, Andrew Robeson, Sr. He settled in Gloucester Co. West Jersey, where he lived until 1702 when he moved to "Shoomac Park" Roxboro Township, Philadelphia Co., Province of Pennsylvania. The first public mention of ANDREW was in 1687 when he was appointed Assessor of Taxes for the County of Gloucester, West Jersey by the Grand Jury of Gloucester County. At the same time he was a Ranger for the County. He was a member of the Council of Proprietors of West Jersey from 1688 to 1701, having become Proprietor of one share, December 12, 1687. He became a Judge of Gloucester Co. in 1692, and Chief Justice of the Province of Pennsylvania from 1693 to 1699. He was a member of the Governor's Provincial Council of New Jersey from 1697 to 1701.

ANDREW and his family were not "Friends" (Quakers) and therefore they attended the Swedish Church. He was living near Amity and was buried in the grounds of St. Gabriel's Church yard and has this epitaph on the back of his headstone---"A" (Skull) "R" (Hour Glass) "X" (Cross Bones), "Remember Death".

His wife, MARY was buried in the grounds adjacent to Old Swedes Church (Glorie Dei) Philadelphia, Pa. Her grave and tombstone are at the right of the walk, near the entrance door of the Church.

ANDREW's will was dated "Sixth Year of the Reign of King George of Great Britain, Anno Domini 1719-20" and was probated March 7, 1719 in the County of Penn. In his will he names sons Andrew, Israel, Jonathan as executors of the will and sons David, Thomas, Samuel, and Peter and daughters Elinor, Mary, and Margot. His son David was given "land whereunto he now possesses". No mention is made in the Will of the eldest daughter Magdaline, but she was married to Thomas Potts and probably had been given her inheritance when she married, as was the custom of the time. The marriages of Thomas York to Robinsons and the record of relationship which each bore the other, is proof that Magdaline was his daughter.

PETER was born in Pennsylvania ca. 1707 and was a Justice of Peace and was a large land owner as early as 1734. He was the Coroner of Philadelphia Co. Pa. from 1759 to 1763. He married SARAH FARMER in 1732 at Christ Church, Philadelphia, Pa. Upon the death in 1745 of his father-in-law EDWARD FARMER, he inherited and operated the mill at White Marsh Pa. which, when built by his father-in-law, was the first mill in that township. His sons William and THOMAS moved to N. Carolina, apparently following their Uncle Thomas (63-6) who had moved there earlier.

THOMAS, SR. was born in Pennsylvania and migrated to North Carolina between 1750-1764 with his brother William following his uncle Thomas (63-6) who had migrated earlier.

He and his brother fought in the Revolutionary War for which he ultimately received a land grant in a Georgia Land Lottery. The following incident is taken from "King's Mountain and Its Heroes" by Lyman Draper, page 265.

"Among Hampton's men was William Robertson, who during the fight was shot completely through the body, the ball entering at one side, and passing out the other. He fell quite helpless to the ground. His wound was apparently mortal, and chancing to recognize one of his neighbors lying down near him, he anxiously inquired if he, too, was wounded. The reply was that his gun was choked, or something of the kind, and would not fire. Robertson then gave him his rifle. "Give me your shot-bag, also, old fellow," he added, for his own supply was exhausted. With his own hand the fallen patriot delivered him his ammunition. But God was better to the wounded hero than his fears; for in due time he recovered, and raised a family, living near Brittain, in Rutherford County, on the farm now occupied by William L. Twitty.

Thomas Robinson-Robertson, a brother of the wounded man, was posted behind a tree, when a Tory neighbor, named Lafferty, discovering him, called him by name; and Robertson peering around the tree to see if he could, who had spoken to him, when a ball sped quickly past him cutting the bark off the tree near his head. Robertson immediately fired back, before his antagonist could regain his position, mortally wounding the tricky Tory, who was near enough to exclaim, and he heard, "Robertson, you have ruined me." "The D--1 help you" responded the Whig, and then re-loading his rifle resumed the fight for freedom." (This incident was derived from A. B. Long by William L. Twitty and mentioned in his correspondence with M. Gen. Lenoir. See Wheeler's "History of North Carolina" Vol. 2, p-167)

In the Census of 1790, THOMAS, SR. was recorded as living in the Morgan District of Rutherford Co., N. C. Also living in the vicinity was his brother, William, and Abel Lewis, whose daughter, MARY LEWIS, was to marry his son, THOMAS, JR. In 1793 he sold considerable property to three of his children, the nature of much of the property indicating that he may have been distributing a portion of his estate and breaking up his household.

In 1808, he moved with his sons THOMAS, JR. and James to Jasper Co., Ga. It is assumed that his wife had already died, as he was now 74 years old and no record in Georgia mentions either his wife or daughters. There are numerous deeds in Jasper Co., Ga. for Thomas Robinson, but we have been unable to determine which were his or his sons. However, because of his age, we have assigned them to THOMAS, JR.

He died in 1822-23 around the age of 88. He was incapacitated before his death as his son James and a man named Jacob Wise were appointed by the court to administer his property. His estate apparently totaled about $600.

"Boarding and schooling Thomas Robinson one year $75.00."
Recorded 12 of March 1825.

THOMAS ROBINSON, JR., 7 or 15-1 b. ca. 1770, N. C. per 1830
Census Georgia. d. August 1846 Fredonia, Chambers Co., Ala.
m. June 20, 1797 MARY (SALLIE) LEWIS 9 or 19-2 b. 4-29-1773
d. 4-25-1863 Fredonia, Chambers Co., Ala.

THOMAS, JR. was born in North Carolina around 1770. He was listed in his father's home in the 1790 Census of Rutherford Co., N. C. He married MARY LEWIS in 1797 in Rutherford Co., N. C.

He moved to Jasper Co., Ga. in early 1808 only two years after the land was ceded by the Creek Indians. With him were his widowed father THOMAS, SR. and presumably his brother, James, and a probable brother John, both of whom were ultimately recorded in the county.

There are numerous deeds recorded in Jasper Co. for a THOMAS
ROBINSON, but we have been unable to determine which father and son.

The early deeds covered land that had just been granted in the 1807 Georgia Land Lottery.

THOMAS, JR. moved to Butts Co. near Indian Springs between 1820-1830. He was recorded in Jasper Co. in the 1820 Census and Butts Co. in the 1830 Census.

Deed records indicate he moved to Butts Co. in 1826 although he already owned land there by 1823. His daughter Sarah was married in 1824 in Monroe Co. from which Butts Co. was formed in 1825, and his son Abel was a Clerk in the Butts Co. District Court by 1826.
Also, a John Robinson was one of the original incorporators of Jackson, the Butt County Seat in 1826, and a John E. Robinson registered from Butts Co. for the 1827 Land Lottery.

Family records state that his son JESSE BERRYMAN was born in Butts Co. in 1814, although it seems unlikely as indians were still in control of the area at this early date.

He moved to Chambers Co., Alabama, no later than the winter of 1838-39, the date of his earliest deeds, and was recorded there in the 1840 Census. Its family tradition that he moved to Chambers Co. at the age of 70 to be near his sons because of his advancing age. His widowed wife MARY and his daughter Cinderella were recorded there in the 1850 Census, living next door to their son, Abel L. Robinson. Both he and his wife are buried in the Mt. Hickory Primitive Baptist Cemetery, near Milltown, Chambers Co., Ala.

He died in 1846, leaving a substantial estate for that era and frontier. He apparently died intestate as no will record has been found and the distribution of assets has the appearance of a ratio distribution as set by law. The administrators of his estate were his son, JESSE BERRYMAN and his son-in-law, Samuel Strahan. The estate as finally discharged in 1869 totaled $11,900 in cash plus uncollectable debts, three of which were due by his sons John, Luke and Thomas, Jr.

Children: The indefinite birth dates and sequence of the children are extrapolated from Census data, deed, will and marriage records.

B. STATEMENT OF CLARA ROBINSON HARRISON

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am the third child of Jesse Berryman Robinson, Jr. and Helen Evelyn Cox Robinson, reared on our plantation near Waverly, Lee Co., Alabama.

As a young lady I went to Waverly and stayed with "Great Aunt" Sallie Brooks Carlisle in her old age. She said her father being left a widower, Rev. James Brooks, met and married Malinda Robinson, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Robinson and older sister of Jesse Berryman Robinson, 1st. That Thomas and Sarah Robinson took her and reared her in their home with their children. She told me many interesting stories of the family.

When "Great Aunt" Sallie Brooks was old enough, she met and married William Whatley Carlisle, Jr., brother of Martha Ann Carlisle who married Jesse Berryman Robinson 1st who was son of Thomas and Sarah Robinson.

Thomas and Sarah Robinson lived the last years of their lives in Chambers Co., Alabama, at Fredonia, and died and is buried at Mt. Hickery Cemetery, Old Primitive Baptist Church is now gone, -but was near Fredonia and Miltown, Alabama.

D. ESTATE OF THOMAS ROBINSON DECEASED

Be it remembered that heretofore Samuel Strahan and Jesse B. Robinson, Administrators of the Estate of Thomas Robinson, deceased, filed in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Chambers County, an account and vouchers, betwixt themselves as such Administrators and said estate; and said account and vouchers having been Stated and reported for Settlement, and due publication of said Settlement having been made in terms of the law; and said Settlement having been continued upon sufficient cause from term to term of said Court, until the present term; and the heirs and legatus of said estate having been notified to show cause if any they had at the present term of the Court, why a Decree of final Settlement should not be rendered by the Court; and no one appearing and objecting to said account and vouchers; and the vouchers appearing reasonable and fair; It is thereupon ordered that the allowances asked for, be allowed, and that the account and vouchers, as stated and reported, by the Judge be allowed.

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the sum of eleven thousand nine hundred dollars and ten cents, has come into the hands of said Administrators with which sum they are properly chargeable and that they are entitled to credits, to the amount of (for commissions and trouble and vouchers herewith filed) Nineteen Hundred and thirty one $32/100$ dollars; which last sum being deducted from the first named sum, leaves still in the hands of said Administrators the sum of nine thousand nine hundred and sixty eight $78/100$ dollars, subject to distribution in the following manner and to the following named persons; to wit: there being more than four children, the widow of said deceased, to wit Sarah Robinson, is entitled to one fifth, which makes the sum of nineteen hundred and ninety three $75/100$ dollars which being deducted from the last afforesaid sum, leaves still in the hands of said Administrators the sum of Seven Thousand nine hundred and seventy five $03/100$ dollars from which last sum deducted five hundred and nine $58/100$ dollars, the amount due said widow in the way of restitration, as per agreement among the Heirs and Legatus, in consequence of amounts received by said heirs and legatus during the lifetime of said deceased, there will be still left, in the hands of said Administrators the sum of Seven Thousand four hundred and sixty five 45/100 dollars subject to distribution, in the following manner, and to the following named persons to wit:

Paid to Abel L. Robinson	$599.32
Paid to Cinderilla Robinson	347.64
Paid to Samuel Strahan in right of his wife Paid to Sarah Strahan formerly Sarah Robinson	884.64
Paid to Jesse B. Robinson	796.64
Paid to Daniel H. Mc Coy in right of his wife Paid to Lucy Mc Coy formerly Lucy Robinson	903.14
Paid to Andrew T. Dozier in right of his wife Paid to Mary Dozier formerly Mary Robinson	892.42
Paid to James Brooks in right of his wife Paid to Melinda Brooks formerly Melinda Robinson	1169.64
Paid to Casper M. Amos in right of his wife Paid to Christian Amos formerly Christian Robinson	877.95

And it further appearing file to the satisfaction of the Court by receipts and notes herewith filed that John Robinson, Luke Robinson and Thomas Robinson are indebted to and have received respectively from said estate more than the amount of distributive share and they having failed or refused to "hotch potch" it is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed, that said Administration be fully and finally discharged from all liability so far as the three last married heirs and legatus are concerned.

And it further appearing to the further satisfaction of the Court, that there are various notes and claims against the heirs and legatus and other persons, for various amounts the makes or promises of which are deemed insolvent: It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that said Administrators be fully and finally discharged from all liabilities, so far as said notes and claims are concerned, which will more fully appear, reference being had to the account herewith filed and marked as insolvent claims and allowance prayed for the same as such: And that said Administrators be allowed to with draw said notes or claims for the purpose of collecting or otherwise disposing of the same, by any agreement, made and entered into betwixt the Heirs and legatus of said estate, they being now all of full age.

And it further appearing that said Administrators have fully and completely administered upon said estate, and have settled up all the claims against said estate, so far as the same have come to their knowledge and that they have receipts here on file, from each of the distributees of said estate, to nearby the amount of their respective shares; It is thereupon ordered, adjudged, and decreed that said administrators be be allowed to with draw each said receipts and upon the payment of each Legatee his full share, hereby distributed, and taking a receipt for the full amount thereof and filing with the clerk of the County Court, Such receipts that they, then be fully and finally discharged from their said Administrations. And that this decree and settlement, together with the account and vouchers, be filed and recorded in the "Book of Settlements". Given under my hand at office, at LaFayette, this 9th day of January. Burney, JOHN ROBINSON, and Henry Hatley."

H. JASPER AND BUTTS COUNTY - DATE FORMED

Jasper County was known originally as Randolph County between 1808-12. It was formed from a portion of Baldwin Co., which was one of two large areas that were covered in the 2nd Georgia Land Lottery of 1807. The land in this lottery was ceded by the Creek Nation of Indians to the U. S. for use of Georgia, by a treaty held in Washington, D. C. on November 14, 1805.

Butts County was formed in 1825 from Henry and Monroe Counties, which were formed in 1821 from the indian lands ceded by the Creeks in 1818. These lands were parcelled out in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1820 and 1821.

Land squatters had invaded the Creek Indian lands before their forced cessation to the U. S., but their land titles were apparently held valid.

ROBINSON FAMILY
CEMETERY RECORDS

After Thomas Robinson, Jr., moved to Chamber Co., Ala., the majority of the family were then buried for the next five generations in:

1. Mt. Hickery Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery at Milltown, Ala.
2. Canaan Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery near Waverly, Ala. and
3. Opelika Cemetery at Opelika, Ala.

The following are records copied from the tombstones in the last two, the Canaan and the Opelika Cemetery.

Canaan Primitive Baptist Church

The Canaan Church was established before the Civil War, and abandoned during the 1930's. Jesse B. Robinson II and Helen Cox Robinson joined this church soon after marrying and moving to Lee Co. He later exchanged land with his neighbor, John Allen, to enlarge the Robinson plot in the cemetery.

The author has many fond memories of this church, as it was the center of gatherings of the community. Singings were held every Sunday afternoon. Services were held once a month on a successive Saturday and Sunday. A three day meeting and dinner was held on the grounds once a year. I can remember when there stood an old frame of an arbor where they held camp meetings in earlier days. Many of the slaves are buried in Canaan Cemetery. My mother, Helen Cox Robinson, showed us where the annex had been when the slaves were members. Many of the older negroes attended services until they died out.

This is a copy of tombstones from Canaan Cemetery, near Waverly, Alabama, made by my sister, Dousie Robinson Maulsby, (Mrs. Gilbert O. Maulsby, 904 5th Ave., Opelika, Ala.) and sent to me, Helen Robinson Graves, (Mrs. Claud P. Graves, 707 Pa. Ave., Clearwater, Florida).

b. 7-2-1798 Rutherford Co., N. C.

d. 5-17-1876 Chambers Co., Ala.

m. Sallie Faulkner b. 1802 Georgia d. after 1876

Abel was born in North Carolina in 1798. He moved with his parents SARAH and THOMAS ROBINSON SR. to Jasper Co., Ga. in 1808. He probably moved to Butts Co., Ga., as he was not living with them in Jasper Co. at the time of the 1820 Census, and was a Clerk in the District Court of Butts Co. by 1826. He apparently experienced some financial problems as his father bought four slaves from his property held under a Sheriff's Sale in Butts Co. in 1833.

He moved to Chambers Co., Ala. between 1840-1846, probably closer to 1840 when his parents and brother JESSE moved to Milltown in the county. He is buried in the Mt. Hickory Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery near Milltown, next to his parents. The above birth and death dates are from his tombstone.

CHILDREN:

The majority of the following data on the descendants of Abel Robinson are from Mrs. C. D. "Emily" Cade, of Huntsboro, Alabama. The data was originally assembled by her husband's aunt, Mrs. Oscar "Mattie" Heath, daughter of James Lewis Robinson, the fifth child of Abel Robinson.

The following incident is from a diary kept by James Lewis Robinson's wife, Mary Fletcher Robinson, in an old composition book.

"4th of July 1876, at Miltown, Chambers Co., Ala."

"A crowd of eleven having gone up on the morning of the third to attend a Centennial to be given by the Citizens of Miltown and Neighborhood. We had a very pleasant trip going, except that we were thoroughly drenched by a summer storm just about three miles from the town, but we took it very calmly, for the crops were suffering for the want of rain. Myself, with my children, Charlie, Minnie and Maggie went to my Mother-in-Law's, Mrs. Abel Robinson's to dine and spend the night. John Robinson's children, Mattie, Sallie and Joshua went to Rev. D. Moon's, Mr. D. Greer's (her brothers-in-law) and Mr. John Wimbrish, Sen. (?). Next A. M. by 8 o'clock the people began to flock in by twos, threes and dozens, till the business part of town was crowded. There was a beautiful grove of natural trees growing on the western part of town, around the Missionary Baptist Church; and as the weather was very oppressive, the manager thought it would be more pleasant to have the benches moved out into the grove, therefore, it was accomplished in a short time, and a stand erected for the speakers. Col. Hudson of Hickery Flat & Rev. H. H. McCoy of the vicinity. About 9 o'clock the audience was called to order and.....(End of copy in notebook).

B. Will of Abel L. Robinson 7-1

Chambers County Court House, LaFayette, Ala. Will Records Vol. 3, p-459

In the name of God, Amen, I, Abel L. Robinson being of sound mind & disposing mind but weak in body, do make the following my last will & testament revoking all other wills.

Item 1st:-I will my soul to God who gave it, I wish to be buried in Christian like manner.

Item 2nd:-That all my just debts that I have contracted since the War be paid.

Item 3rd:-I will all my estate both real and personal to my beloved wife, Sarah Robinson for and during her natural life, at her death, if there be anything that it be divided between my beloved children (to wit) Luke Robinson, Matilda Greer, formerly Matilda Robinson, (Nancy Lassater's children, She, Nancy being dead, (to wit) Sarah Hardy, Martha Oliver and Terresa Lassater) to draw one share what their mother would have been entitled to, Martha Dozier, formerly Martha Robinson, James L. Robinson, Sarah E. Morgan formerly Robinson, Anna S. Limuel, formerly Robinson, Emily C. Johnson, formerly Robinson, Ollie Lassater, formerly Robinson.

Item 4th:-I desire that my house & lot & eighty acres of land be kept as a domicil for my beloved wife for & during her life time. I hereby charge and ask to never let my beloved wife ever want for food or raintment.

Item 5th:-I hereby appoint my son Luke Robinson & David L. Moon, Executors and give them full power to sell any property I have & execute titles as full and ample in all respects as could do it myself except my domicil & eighty acres of land.

Item 6th:-That my executors have this will proven & that they give no bond nor make any returns of my estate but manage it as before stated that they be at no expense but to prove this will & if thought best to return an Inventory of my estate, to do so.

Subscribed to this 11th day of April, 1871.

Signed-A. L. Robinson

I hereby request the witnesses to subscribe to this will ---

7-6 JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON I 3 (See Page 82)

7-9 Malinda Robinson b. 1815-1820 Ga. m. (1st) Rev. James Brooks. She was his second wife. His daughter, Sallie Brooks, by his first wife was taken in the home of SARAH and THOMAS ROBINSON, JR. and reared with their younger children. m. (2nd) William Carlisle, He was a brother of MARTHA ANN CARISLE who married his wife's older brother, JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON I.

JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON IST 3 or 7-6 b. 1-21-1814 Butts or Jasper Co., Ga.
d. 5-14-1871 Notasulga, Macon Co., Ala. m. 2-14-1839 MARTHA ANN CARLISLE 5 or 11-1
b. 1823 Cowetta Co., Ga. d. 1-7-1896 Opelika, Lee Co., Ala.

JESSE B. IST was born in Georgia and moved with his father THOMAS to Chamber Co., Ala., no later than the winter of 1838-39, and possibly as early as 1836. He was recorded living next door to his father in the 1840 Census of Chambers Co. He married MARTHA ANN CARLISLE in Chambers Co., near Fredonia, Ala. on 2-14-1839, with the Rev. Moses Gunn officiating. Since she was only 15 or 16, he apparently had to register consent of her father to the marriage.

He served as a first sargent in Capt. Moses Gunn's Company, Webb's Battalion, Alabama Militia in the Creek Indian War of 1836. He enlisted at Ft. Henderson on 6-2-1836 and was mustered out at LaFayette, Alabama on 9-1-1836. He was described in his wife's military pension application as six feet one inch tall, blue eyes, auburn hair and red complexion, and a farmer born at Jackson, Butts Co., Ga.

He lived at LaFayette, Chambers Co., Ala., until about 1840 and then moved within the county to Milltown, where he farmed and established a grist and cotton mill.

The following narrative on JESSE is from the personal note of his daughter-in-law, HELENE COX ROBINSON.

"During the War between the States, he was made Captain of the Home Guard at Milltown. My husband, Jesse B. Robinson II was home for a time from the War. He and his father gathered up all the old men and young boys to drill them for the Home Guard and to gather food and supplies for the men and horses stationed at West Point, Ga. After gathering these supplies, Captain Robinson took them to West Point, Ga., to General Robert C. Tyler. He was at the fall of West Point when Gen. Tyler was killed on Easter Sunday, April 16, 1865. Although many Home Guard units fought with the regular troops in the last chaotic days of the war, records of their service were not kept."

He was financially hurt by the Civil War, losing crops, slaves, and horses. Since he was unable to hire field hands in Chambers Co., he sold his farm and mills. He purchased land in the Montgomery River Valley of Elmore Co., Ala., adjacent to Montgomery, the Capitol, where freed slaves were congregating. Not being accustomed to directly running his farms, as he had used overseers, and because of the flooding of his fields by the adjacent river, he gave up after three years. He moved to Notasulga, Ala., buying the Trammell farm next to his son, JESSE II, where he soon died a "broken hearted and despondent man." His will was probated in Macon Co., Ala.

C. WILL OF JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON IST 3

(This will was found attached to the pension application of widow, MARTHA ANN ROBINSON 5, for her husbands service in the Creek Indian War of 1836.)

Know all men by these presents that I, Jesse B. Robinson of the Town of Mill Town, in the County of Chambers and State of Alabama, considering the uncertainty of this life, and being of sound mind and memory, do make, declare, and publish this my last will and testament.

First, It is my will and desire that all my just debts should be paid as soon as possible, or as soon as the nature and circumstances of my estate may admit.

Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Martha Ann Robinson, all my estate both real, personal or mixed, of which I Shall die, seized, and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease; Subject to this qualification that She Shall control, manage and dispose of my estate, collect up my assets and pay off my debts in the same manner and with a view to the interest of my estate as though I should be alive and doing the same for myself; Keeping my estate together so far as prudence and her good judgment may dictate without a division of the same among my children except as hereinafter directed;

Third, It is my will and desire that my children before they marry or become of age shall be maintained, supported and educated by my said wife, out of my estate according to the condition of my said estate,

Fourth, It is my will and desire that as my children shall become of age or shall marry that a portion of my estate Shall be given to each by my said wife as she may see fit, so as to make each one as equal as possible; My said wife reserving to herself, however, such a portion of my estate as will be sufficient to support and maintain her during her natural life, and after her death then her portion to be equally divided among my said children. Should however My said wife die before all of my children, they shall receive any portion of my estate then it is My will and desire and I so direct, that those who have not received any, shall be made equal to those who may have so received and then the remainder left, if any, Shall be equally divided among all my said children. And in making this distribution among my children, the amount of property which I have given off to my son William, W. C. Robinson, who is married, Shall be considered as a part of his portion of My estate, that is to say, he is to be made equal to the balance should they receive more than him, but if not then he is to receive no more than what he has already.

Fifth, I do nominate and appoint Martha Ann Robinson to be executrix of this my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name and set my seal this the fifteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty two.

(Signed by him) J. B. Robinson (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, declared and published by the said Jesse B. Robinson, as and for his last will and testament in presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnessed hereto.

W. R. Lovelace,

M. B. Taylor,

William Graze.

(Across J. B. Robinson's WILL #1057. Then below a codicil.)

I, J. B. Robinson of Mill Town state of Ala.-do make this my Codicil hereby confirming my last will and testament on the 15th day of November A.D. 1862, to wit:

I do hereby declare and publish as my will and desire that my wife Martha A. Robinson Executrix of my said will, Shall not give bond and security as required by law as Executrix as aforesaid.

D. WILL OF MARTHA ANN ROBINSON 5

I Martha Ann Robinson of the County of Lee, State of Alabama, being of sound mind, disposing _____ memory and feeling the uncertainty of this life, do make ordain and publish this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking all others that is to say, It is my desire and will that all my estate, both real and personal and mixed of whatsoever nature or kind, legal or equitable shall be equally divided between my three youngest daughters to wit: Mollie E. Robinson, Lucy M. Gross, and Amarillas F. Stephens and to the heirs of their body and my son William C. Robinson to act as administrator without requiring any bond of him and in the capacity of administrator to make an equitable division of the said estate to my daughters, Mollie E. Robinson, Lucy M. Gross and Amarillas F. Stephens and to the heirs of their body and said division to be made in such manner and time as my son William C. Robinson may decide to be the best and most economical and equitable.

In making this my last will and in dividing my estate between my three youngest daughters I have not done so without considering that I have several older heirs to wit: William C. Robinson, Thomas A. Robinson (deceased), Clara Mulin (deceased), Malinda C. Phillips (deceased), Jesse B. Robinson, Sarah Vanduzen Burke, and Mattie J. Burke and considered what they have received and their present condition and which I regret my inability under this consideration to leave any additional amount to each or any of them. I feel it my duty to make this my last will and testament. In testimony where of I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my last will and testament on this 26th day of December, A. D. 1891.

Martha A. Robinson (Seal)

Done and executed in the presence of us who signed it in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other at her request.

J. B. Carlisle

A. F. Carlisle

In case W. C. Robinson should die before the making of the division of my estate then it is my will that Joseph Burke my son-in-law, shall act as administrator without bond and in the same capacity as William C. Robinson. This 20th day of December A.D. 1891.

ROBINSON FAMILY

BIBLE RECORDS

The most important source of information on the JESSE B. ROBINSON I family and dependents is the family Bible, originally maintained by his wife, MARTHA ANN CARLISE ROBINSON. The Bible was passed down three generations to her granddaughter, Mrs. Helen Robinson Graves, who placed it in the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in Washington, D. C.

The following are all of the family records enscribed in the bible.

JOHN was born in Virginia in 1728 and moved his family to N. Carolina between 1755-1775. He probably moved simultaneously with his two brother-in-laws, Alexander Mackey who married Sarah Lewis, and Joel Terrell who married Anna Lewis.

It is probable, but not proven, that JOHN fought in the Revolutionary War. The heirs of a John Lewis, Private, received a 640 acre grant for 84 months service. The grant was dated 4-23-1785, after JOHN's death. It was executed by Major Joseph Dixion who in Oct, 1780 was with the N. C. Militia, Kings Mt. of which many men in this group were from Rutherford Co.

He died in Rutherford Co., N. C. where his will dated 10-20-1779 was proven in court in April, 1782. In his will, he states that if his wife attempts to violate the will and sieze control of his property, other than her dower right, then the property bequeathed his youngest sons, Julius C. Lewis and David J. Lewis shall be divided among his other sons! This is an odd directive that two sons should be denied property because of an act of their mother. A possible answer is that his wife, Susan Ann, was showing favoritism for her sons over his children by his first wife, and this threat was the only way he could prevent such action after his death.

The number of children he had is unknown. He mentions only five children by name in his will, Mildred; Frances, Julius C., David J., and Talliaferro, and then refers to "the rest of my sons." Four of his other sons were probably Charles, Abel, Rd., and John and possibly Henry and Hercules. These were the christian names of Lewis families living adjacent to one another in the 1790 Census.

Rd. and John Lewis were bondsmen on the marriage of Abel Lewis' daughter, Mary Lewis, to Thomas Robinson. And since they; Rd., John and Abel Lewis were apparently well established by the 1790 Census, each having two children and owning several slaves, they were too old to be Mary's brothers, therefore, were probably her uncles. Since Charles Lewis, who also fought in the Revolutionary War, was born in 1761, he has to be a son of JOHN LEWIS. Henry and Hercules Lewis are not found in other records other than the 1790 Census, where they were living in the same vicinity with other Lewis families.

One researcher stated that she had strong indication that Julius C., was Julius Charles, and that David J. was David John, therefore, these two sons are duplicated in the records.

ABEL apparently died early in his marriage. According to family tradition, his daughter MARY ROBINSON had no recollection of him, but did fondly remember her stepfather, a Jesse Berry. She named her first son Abel Lewis Robinson. She named another son JESSE BERRYMAN ROBINSON and made a lovely quilt which she gave to this son, to be given to each succeeding son named Jesse Berryman. The quilt was destroyed around 1948, when a fire burned down the house of Jesse Berryman Robinson III. The author remembers this beautiful quilt and how my mother used it as a showpiece for company.

The stepfather, Jesse Berry, died before 1790, for the Census of that year recorded Mary Berry as head of a family living adjacent to several Lewis families which were her brothers-in-law. Her family consisted of four boys and two girls, indicating that she had additional children by either ABEL, or more likely by Jesse Barry.

THE WHATLEY FAMILY IN GEORGIA

There was a significant number of Whatley families that moved to Wilkes County, Ga. early in its settlement. They were unquestionably related, although I have been unable to establish their specific connections. They settled within sixty miles of each other, most within thirty, apparently arriving there around 1784.

The following are the first Whatleys that were recorded in Wilkes Co.

Michael 1788 - 1786

Samuel 1794 - 1779 Son of William

Wills 1785

John 1785

JOHN was a surveyor, a trade which he taught to his sons as four of them are known to have also been surveyors. He probably lived in Hanover Co., Va., as a John and Shirley Whatley were recorded there as surveyors.
JOHN moved to the Long Cane Community of South Carolina in the middle 1750's probably from N. C.

ORNAN was born in either Va. or N. C. He moved to Ga. ca. 1774 where he served in the Revolutionary War. For this service he drew Certificate No. 759 as a soldiers bounty, and on 12-8-1783 he received a land grant from Ga. for 200 acres. He also received additional land grants in 1784 and 1785, all on the South Fork of Little River, totalling more than 1,000 acres. He married ELIZABETH EDWARDS probably in Wilkes Co., Ga. He died in Greene Co., Ga. probably in 1807, leaving four minor children.

ELIZABETH had two illegitimate sons, Laxla and Berry, to whom she gave the surname Edwards. These brothers are believed to have been twins. They raised large families in Ga. and Ala. Berry was a surveyor in Ga., and was killed by Indians while surveying Indian Lands. ELIZABETH married 1st-ORNAN WHATLEY, and then after his death, a Mr. Bowen. There were no children by the second marriage.

Our Records indicate that Ornan Whatley was a son of John Whatley who settled in the Long Cane community of South Carolina in the Mid 1750's and is buried near the town of Troy, in McCormick County, South Carolina.

Ornan, son of John, drew Certificate #759 for 250 acres as soldier's Bounty, December 8th, 1783. The records also show he received land grants in 1784 and 1785, all in South fork of Little River, totaling more than 1000 acres.

Ornan Whatley gave his nephew, Samuel Whatley (Son of his brother William) the land where the Whatley Mill Church was founded in 1785, this shows up in oldest deed book of Wilkes County on page 49. Whatley Mill Church was rebuilt in 1820 and the name changed to Bethesda Baptist Church.

ANCESTORS OF ELIZABETH EDWARDS 53

WIFE OF ORNAN WHATLEY 51

The Edwards Family has probably been more thoroughly researched than any family in the United States. The reason for all this effort was a share in a potential fortune for the heirs of one Thomas Edwards, who was the lessor of a substantial tract of land on Manhattan Island, New York City. Organizations of Edwards Heirs arose to legally prosecute their claim to this land. One of the most extensive histories of the family and this ground lease is from the research efforts of Mr. J. T. Sadler of Lafayette, Ala. Mr. Sadler became so convinced of the validity of his claim that he sold his family farm and spent the remainder of his life traveling and collecting data on the Edwards Heirs. He became an accomplished geneologist and in my opinion his data has proven to be accurate and superior to that of other researchers. The following summary of the Edwards Lease is from a letter Mr. Sadler sent in 1925 to the Georgia-Alabama Organization of Edwards' Heirs.

SOME FACTS IN CONNECTION WITH THE SAME NOT HERETOFORE MADE KNOWN

As there is a great deal being said at present in the newspapers concerning the Edwards estate and many wild and extravagant statements are being made as these statements are misleading and tend to confuse rather than inform the public, I feel called upon to give what I believe to be a correct, though brief statement of the matter.

From a large correspondence, extending over several years, and from information gained by visiting and consulting older members of the Edwards connection, I am able to make the following statement:

Along about 1750 three Edwards brothers, Thomas, Henry, and Edward came to this country from England. In 1771 Thomas Edwards bought from the Indians an unsettled claim on 50,000 acres of land lying along the Hudson River in the State of New York, and in payment for services rendered the English government during the French and Indian wars, the crown acknowledged the claim and made to Thomas Edwards absolute title. At the beginning of the Revolutionary War, Thomas Edwards, although very old was active in supporting the English Government and became personally responsible for a large amount of wheat bought in New York for the British Army.

About this time he died and Robert Edwards, his oldest, administered on the estate. After the close of the war; order having been restored, Robert leased certain property in New York City for 99 years to settle claims against the estate. The lease was made to Aaron Burr and was dated in 1789. After holding the property for 33 years, Burr sub-leased it to New York City for 66 years. The records show that the conditions of the lease were that at the expiration of the 99 years, the property, with all improvements was to revert to the decendants of Thomas Edwards.

The property so leased is described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the Hudson River, then down the river, taking in part of Long Island, then to the Bowry, then up to Canal Street to Broad Street, taking in Trinity and St. Peters Churches, then to point of beginning. This tract is said to contain somewhere between 75 and 100 acres and its assessed valuation at the expiration of the lease in 1886 was, as I am told by a prominent real estate agent in New York, $312,000,000.00.

Since the lease expired, the decendants of Thomas Edwards, have been trying to come together and collect the necessary proof to establish their right and recover the property.

I am told that the New York City authorities have acknowledged the claim and parties in a position to know the present status of the matter are quite confident of a favorable settlement indeed so strong is confidence in recovering this property, that brokers and speculators are offering to buy the interest of any of the heirs who are willing to sell.

A great deal more might be said, were I attempting to write a complete history of the property especially concerning the English law of Promogenture and other colonial customs which obtained many years ago, but are now obsolete.

I think that I have said enough to place the matter plainly before any one interested.

I will now give a brief statement of Thomas Edwards' children and grandchildren:

Thomas Edwards had five sons and one daughter. They were Robert, John, William, Solomon, Thomas, and Frankie.

It has been said that Robert never married. This is a mistake; he married late in life, and had three children. They were Reuben Nathaniel, John Crawford, and Rebecca, a daughter. Robert and his wife both died leaving these children in minority and their Uncle William Edwards became their guardian. The descendants of these children are scattered over Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Ohio and there is one in Canada.

John Edwards settled in Virginia, Culpepper County, and died there. His will is recorded at Culpepper Court House. I have in my possession a copy of his family record. His children were Betty, Joseph, John, Mary, Thomas, Sarah, and William. Some of the descendants of these children are now in Virginia and some in Kentucky and some in South Carolina.

William Edwards settled in Virginia, but some time after the Revolutionary War, moved to North Carolina and died there. He had seven children, John, Joseph, Sally, Jarrett, Stratton, Jesse, and Ambrose. Some of these married in Virginia, but later on moved west. Their descendants are mostly in North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Tennessee. Sally married Ambros Daniel, and settled in Fairfield County, South Carolina. I have not been able to gather any reliable information concerning Solomon Edwards, however, I think he went to Kentucky and from there his descendants scattered over Ohio, Indiana, and the West. Thomas Edwards, Jr., settled in South Carolina on South Tiger River. Some of his descendants reside in the same locality, others went west before the Civil War. Miss Frankie Edwards married Isiah Wickliffe and settled in Greenville, South Carolina on a lot where the United States Court House now stands. Frankie had only two children, William and Lucy. Miss Lucy married John J. Stokes.

Later generations might be mentioned, but the bounds assigned this statement is already reached, and I will only say further that my Mother, Mrs. Sarah Sadler, who was married to George W. Sadler in Edgefield, S. C. on August 7th, 1884, is a great granddaughter of Thomas Edwards, and granddaughter of William Edwards and daughter of Jarrett Edwards. To this union were born six children: J. T. Sadler, Harriet Griffin, Mary A. Lindsey, Joicy F. Sargent, G. W. Sadler and R. C. Sadler.

The foregoing statements are made from data in my hands and are intended to aid any of the Edwards' decendants into whose hands they may come. ~~Anyone~~ who may be able to trace relationship to any of the mentioned Edwards can easily establish a claim to a part of this estate.

THOMAS EDWARDS 431 b. ca. 1700 England d. ca. 1775, New York
THOMAS came to America ca. 1745. THOMAS was born in England, depending upon which researcher one quotes, in 1682, 1715, or 1720, but most probably around 1700. Sadler says THOMAS came to America with his borthers Henry and Edward, while Clarke states he came with his sons Robert, John and Ambrose. These statements do not conflict as he might have come with two brothers and three sons. Both Sadler and Clarke state THOMAS was a minister of the Church of England from Yorkshire, England and that he came to America around 1745 - 1750 and settled in New York.

THOMAS either purchased or was granted substantital acreage on Manhannttan Island, a claim that was recognized by the British for services he rendered in the French-Indian War. He was a Tory and allegedly supplied wheat to the Royal Army during the early days of the Revolutionary War. Upon his death, his substantital estate was administered by his son, John Edwards, who made the famous Edwards lease of New York City land to Aaron Burr.

Robert lived in New York where he accumulated much property. He may have been a Royalist. After the Revolutionary War, he administered his fathers estate for which he executed the famous 99 year land lease to Aaron Burr. Clarke states Robert returned to England permanently and never married. Sadler states he returned from England, married, had three children, which lived as minors after his death with his brother William.

AMBROSE was born probably in Maryland between 1740 - 46, but possibly in Virginia. He moved with his parents to Culpepper Co., Va. and after the Revolutionary War to Mecklenburg Co., N. C., where his father died. It is said he lived for a time in Edgefield Co., S. C. before moving to Georgia around 1784. He was first listed in the Wilkes Co., Ga., Tax List in 1785 as having 2 1/2 polls, 3 slaves, and 551 acres. Also listed on the Tax Rolls was his brother, John, from whose estate in 1787 he was reimbursed for medical expenses paid to Dr. Anthony Poullain for visits to his brother John. AMBROSE appeared to have some connections with Montgomery Co., N. C.

He ultimately settled in a portion of Wilkes Co., Ga., that was to become Jones Co. He died there in 1823.

ANCESTORS OF ELIZABETH MURRAY 29

WIFE OF JOHN EVANS 27

Records in Georgia indicate that the family's first Murray ancestor in Georgia may have been a David Murray, Sr., who died in Wilkes County, Ga. in 1796-97. His wife, Elizabeth is mentioned in legal records as well as a David, Jr., William, Jean, Pauline and Thomas Murray, which are believed to be related to David Murray, Sr. There is no proof that this David Murray, Sr. is the father of the following David Murray, Jr., but they were in the same locality and of proper age.

DAVID was born in 1760 in Virginia. He enlisted in the Continental Army of Virginia on Dec. 30, 1776, and served as a private in Capt. Satterlees' Company, Col. Moses Hazen's Regiment. He was taken prisoner by the British but later escaped and returned to his Company Aug. 4, 1779. He was discharged by the Commander-in-Chief on June 17, 1783.

He moved from Prince Edward Co., Va., shortly after the Revolutionary War, locating in Wilkes Co., Georgia. He was recorded in Lincoln Co., Ga. by 1790. It is not known when he moved to Alabama.

He died in Talladega Co., Ala. His tombstone there is inscribed, "David Murray, A Revolutionary Soldier who departed this life the 8th day of Nov. 1840 in the 80th year of his age."

CARY SR. was born and married in Virginia. He moved his family to Halifax Co., N. C. ca. 1762. He and his oldest son William served in the N. C. Line in the Revolutionary War where CARY had a finger shot off. CARY moved ca. 1788 to S. C. and was recorded in the Edgefield District in the 1790 Census. He moved to Warren Co., Ga., by 1795, and Putnam Co., Ga. in 1807.

CARY SR. was a Primitive Baptist Minister, although no record has been found where he served any church. He and his wife were received into Powell's Creek Baptist Church in Warren Co., on 2-7-1795. There was some dissension as minutes of the Church recorded some members "having broken communion with the General Baptist." CARY SR. was involved in the issue, as he was dismissed and later rejoined.

He and his wife were buried on the plantation of his son CARY JR with whom they were living, which is now part of the Ocene National Forest.

PENSION STATEMENT BY ASA COX, 16-5
SON OF CARY COX, SR. 16

State of Georgia) SS:
Harris County)

On this 24th day of June A. D. 1852 before me a Justice of the Inferior Court of said county personally appeared Asa Cox aged seventy six (76) years passed, a resident of the county and state aforesaid, who after being duly sworn according to law doth upon his oath make the following statements. That at the time of his earliest recollection he was living in Halifax County, North Carolina. That this was in time of the Revolutionary War. That his father, Cary Cox, and his brother, William Cox, were engaged in said war. That he has no recollection of the time when his father and said brother went into the service, but he remembers distinctly that his father got wounded and came home and that when his mother talked a great deal about his said brother William who still remained in service after the return of his father as stated above, and he remembers his mother said that his said brother was fighting for liberty, against the Tories and British. That he does not know what officers his said brother served under nor what time he went into service, but that he continued in service until peace was made. That he remembers clearly when his said brother came home. That he talked much about the hardships that he and his fellow soldiers had endured. And deponent further states that about the year 1788 himself and his fathers family moved from North Carolina to Edgefield District South Carolina that about two or three years after this his said brother William Cox also moved from N. Carolina to said District South Carolina, where he lived a few years and moved to Pendleton District in said State, where he remained until about the year 1822 when he moved to Habersham County, Georgia where he remained until his death which occurred on the 21st day of March 1848, as he had been credibly informed and verily believed.

And he swears that he is a disinterested witness. (Signed) Asa Cox

Sworn to and subscribed before me the day and year above written. And I hereby certify that the deponent Asa Cox is well known to me, that he is a highly respectable citizen, that his statements are worthy of full credit, and that I believe he is of the age above stated.

D. CHURCH RECORDS

BAPTIST CHURCH
WILKES CO., AND WARREN CO., GA.

The Baptist Church of Christ at Williams Creek was constituted Dec. 22, 1787 at the headwaters of Williams Creek of Little River in that section of Wilkes Co., which became Warren Co., by the Act of 1793. It was associated with Powell's Creek Church (Powellton Baptist Church), Fulsom Creek Church (The Church of Horeb), and churches at Phillips Mill, Long Creek, and Whatley's Mills. Since minutes of the Powellton Church of 1793 include excommunications of members for "having broken communion with the General Baptist", it is assumed that all of these churches were under control of the "Particular Baptist" who had accepted Calvinist learnings and became most prominent in the Carolinas in the latter half of the eighteenth century. The minutes of Williams Creek Church for Jan. 9, 1796 also included the administration "...if any member of the church join the Free Masons he is to be excommunicated."

The following items relative to the Cox family was extracted from the minutes of the Baptist Church of Christ at Williams Creek.

Feb. 7, 1795 - Received Carey Cox and Mary his wife by letter.

May 9, 1795 - Carey Cox one of those appointed as helps to Powell's Creek Church.

June 12, 1795 - Ichabod Cox and Mary his wife were received by letter.

An alphabetical list of members on page 25 obviously added to and crossed out for a number of years indicates that Catherine Cox was excommunicated.

Jan. 7, 1797 - A matter between brother Cox and James Henderson laid over until next conference, and William Lovel requested to attend as a witness.

March 11, 1797 - Brother Cox matter laid over until our next conference.

April 8, 1797 - Ditto above.

May 13, 1797 - Brother Cox came forward and made satisfaction respecting the charge laid against him by James Henderson and was restored to fellowship.

Jan. 1800 - Ordered that Brother Williams cite Brother Cox to attend our next conference.

22 Feb. 1800 - After Brother Cox and Sister Cox were cited to attend, they made choice of certain brethren to attend at a convenient place and hear them both, which they did, and after hearing the nature of the case difference, We Judge them both to be very much to blame, and that Sister Cox's complaint established. A report being made to the church, the church declares an unfellowship with them in such a standing.

Jan. 23, 1802 - Sister Cox restored to fellowship.

June 25, 1802 - Some of the members being dissatisfied with the restoration of Sister Cox, and as such have no fellowship with her in her present standing and is hereby ordered out of our fellowship.

May 21, 1803 - Received a charge against Brother Heflin for being seen at a certain time drunk at Asa Cox's.

March 15, 1806 - Mary Cox restored to fellowship after she made acknowledgment which satisfied the church.

Dec. 20, 1806 - Brother Cox, his wife and mother requested to be dismissed.

August 15, 1807 - Brother Carey Cox came forward and made acknowledgement to the church respecting his former conduct with his wife and was restored to fellowship and granted a letter of dismission.

Baptist Church at Long Creek. List of members for period 1799-1812 includes #156 Martha Cox, with the notation that she died.

CARY COX, SR. seemed to have a considerable difference of opinion with the members of the Baptist Church of Christ at Williams Creek. The nature of his transgressions are unknown, however, it is family tradition that he was far minded and very tolerant, especially for a Primitive Baptist Minister.

Also mentioned were his brother, Asa Cox, wife MARY HORNE COX, and mother, MARTHA COX.

m. N. C. to Mrs. Katie Roberts Arthur, a widow with two children.
b. N. C. d. ca. 1845 Habersham Co., Ga.

William was born in Virginia and moved to Halifax, N. C. with his parents by 1772. He married in N. C. and was recorded there in the Halifax District in the 1790 Census of Population. He remained in N. C. when his father and brothers moved to Edgefield, S. C. in ca. 1788, although he ultimately moved there about three years later. His brother Asa Cox stated that William then moved to the Pendleton District of S. C. and then around 1822 to Habersham Co., Ga.

William fought in the Revolutionary War enlisting in the N. C. Line on 4-16-1776, and discharged 11-10-1778. He served as a Private in Capt. Caswell's Company, Col. Brandon's Regiment. His father CARY COX, SR. was also in the N. C. Line until wounded.

JESSE COX'S WILL 16-2

Georgia)
) In the Name of God, Amen,
Jones County)

I, Jesse Cox, Senr., of said state and county, being weak in body, but of sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following (to wit):

1st. Item - I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy Cox One negro man Daniel, one negro woman Zilpha with her future increase, one negro boy Ambrose about twelve years of age, one bed and furniture, to her and her heirs forever.

Item 2. - Also one lot or tract of land containing two hundred two and half acres more or less, situate, being and lying in the sixth district of originally Baldwin now Jones County being distinguished in the plan of said District by number one hundred and fifty five, No. 155 - and Granted to Thomas Hazwell, to have and to hold the said tract of Land with all and singular the rights, members and appurtenances thereunto belonging unto her the said Nancy Cox during her natural life and at her death to revert to her four children namely Ira, Nancy, Leander and Franklin W., to them and their assigns forever.

Item 3rd - I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Cox, for her own proper use and benefit, my four wheeled pleasure carriage, with the horses attached thereto and appendage thereto belonging.

Item 4th - I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Cox, two cows and calves for her own proper use and benefit.

Item 5th - Whereas I have four chances, in Lottery now in operation, in Milledgeville, for the Cherokee Land and Gold (viz) Two in the Land and two in the Gold Lottery, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Cox, to my beloved sons Jesse Cox and Sampson, my Son Ira, and my daughters Nancy and

(Will Cont'd)

Leander, and my son Franklin W. Cox - a joint and equal interest in any and all the Land and Gold, that I may be entitled to in said Lottery should I prove to be a fortunate drawer in the above mentioned Land and Gold Lottery - My reason for giving my interest in the Lottery as above described, is that my other children and near relatives have an interest of their own exclusively in said Lottery - and my wife and children mentioned in the last above Item, have no other interest pending in said Lottery - except this derived from me. Item 6th - And my will further is that the balance of my property - both real and personal not deeded or willed away to be sold on a credit of twelve months, and the proceeds thereof after the payment of my just debts and Legacies to be equally divided between my wife and all of my children so that each shall have an equal part or interest to them and their heirs forever. Item 7th - And lastly I appoint Thomas Moughan and J. W. Gordon my Executors - to execute this my last Will and Testament, and it is also my wish that said Thomas Moughan and John W. Gordon act as Guardians for my children, this the 13th December 1832.

The following was written by one of his nieces and found in the records of HELEN COX ROBINSON 2.

"Dr. Wade Chappel Cox, son of Colonel Bartley Martin Cox, and his wife Sarah Elizabeth Cox, was born in Putnam Co., Ga., enlisted in the Confederate Service from Mitchell Co., Ga. Being a noted Physician, he was left at home as a Home Guard and often the only Physician in the County. Like his father, he was an upright and honorable man, not only serving the people as Physician, but often spending nights and days nursing desperate cases. His sister, Sarah Elizabeth (my Mother) was his right hand in helping to nurse and fight disease and sickness among the poor and needy. Dr. Cox was loved and honored by all who knew him for his wise and tender ministrations. He was graduated at the New York Medical College, took special courses in London, Paris and Vienna.

On one occasion, Mr. Calvin Bullard returned from the front during the war on a sick furlough, calling in Dr. Cox, he was found to have smallpox. Naturally, all the family connections had visited the brother and son to see and hear the news from the front. Dr. Cox immediately quarantined those who had been exposed and with the help of those members of the family who were able, nursed them all through a long seige of that dreaded disease, "Smallpox."

"His Father, Colonel Bartley M. Cox, had prepared baskets of food every day and placed it on a stump near the Bullard home. Dr. Cox would take the food into the family (no negroes were allowed on the place), four of the eleven who had smallpox died and were buried in graves dug by slaves near the house. They were wrapped in quilts and sheets and placed in their graves by Dr. Cox and members of the family. Colonel Bartley Martin Cox's daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, was the only woman to capture a Yankee Soldier single handed and turn him over to the Confederate Officers, like a true Southern Patriot. She surprised one of Stoneman's Raiders while drinking from her spring one day, and made him march to the turn of her rifle pointed in his direction."

After the death of his first wife, Martha Pearson, he lived with Samuel Pearson.

Mrs. Richard Allen Beauchamp 10-2-2-2-2-1 joined D. A. R. Nat. #168264 on Abraham Cox b-1736 Va. Her paper states he died in Wilkes Co., Ga., although his will was written in Faquier Co., Va. His son Zachariah Cox moved to Wilkes Co., Ga., and as he was Administrator of his father's estate, a copy of the Will was filed in Wilkes Co., Ga. The Wilkes Co., and Jones Co., Georgia, Coxes are not the same family, although they could be kin, and the names of children of Abraham Cox and CARY COX are similar. Because of these erroneous papers, the D. A. R. rejected several member application based upon CARY COX. ARTICLE ON ICHABOD COX 16-3

The following article is from "Troup County History" by Clifford Smith.

"In 1857 Ichabod Cox was President of the La Grange Female Seminary. This was considered a Baptist College as it was founded in 1842 by Rev. John E. Dawson, a Baptist Minister. When Ichabod Cox took over in 1857, the name was changed to Cox College. It had been under several names before Mr. Cox took over. He served thirty years as President, during this period he established it on a going basis.

During the Civil War the buildings were taken over as a hospital for the soldiers. Sometime afterward, the buildings were destroyed by fire and Dr. Cox had them rebuilt and refurnished. In 1878 a new site on Church Street was selected and the Chapel was erected in 1887. This was a monument to the generosity of Dr. Cox and the people of La Grange.

In 1887 during commencement week, Dr. Cox died with a stroke, but he had left the College free from debt and well equipped with modern appliances and handsome buildings. His wife, Mrs. Mary S. Cox, succeeded him as President for a time, then their son, Charles C. Cox became President.

In 1895 they decided to move the college to College Park, Ga., near Atlanta. Dr. William E. Cox, after graduating from Cornell University, returned to La Grange and became business manager. After the death of Dr. Charles Cox, his brother, Dr. William Cox became President and served the College nearly fifty years, dying 12 November 1938.

In 1941 the College was in trouble but the loyal backing of the Alumnae and the Professors and parents of students together, assured the college would be conducted and maintained in such a fashion as to deserve and have a distinction and servicable place among the educational instructions of Georgia. (The college ultimately closed)

Dr. Cox was unmarried, but he was survived by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles C. Cox, two neices, Mrs. Alice Cox Reim, of College Park, and Mrs. M. N. Henry of Los Angeles, California. Also, two nephews, W. L. Stanton and Frank Stanton of Washington State."

Asa Cox probably moved to Warren Co., Ga. with his father and brothers in 1795. He built a log house there in 1798 and recorded land deeds on 7-10-1798. He drew in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1792. He moved to Jones Co., Ga. in 1808, and fought in the Creek Indian War in 1826.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ASA COX, DECEASED.

RECORDED IN HARRIS COUNTY, GEORGIA BK 2, pp-137--178

I, Asa Cox of said state and County, being of advanced age and knowing that I must shortly depart this life, deem it right and proper both as respects my self and family that I should make a distribution of the property with which a kind providence has blessed me. So therefore make this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others heretofore made by me.

Item

I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian like manner suitable to my circumstances and condition in life; my soul I trust shall return to God who gave it. I hope for eternal salvation through the merits and atonement of the blessed Lord and Savior, whose religion I have professed, and as I humbly trust have enjoyed for the last ten years.

2 Item

I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid by my executors herein-after named as I am unwilling my creditors should be delayed in their rights, especially, as there is no necessity for delay..

3 Item

My will and desire that at my death all my estate both real and personal be sold on credit of twelve months and equally divided among all my children that is in life and to the lawful heirs of any that may be dead.

4 Item

My will and desire is that my daughter Isabella Hill shall have at my death one Hundred Dollars more than my other children, which hundred dollars I desire shall be laid out by my Executors for her home, wherever she may wish or in any other property that she may wish.

5 Item

My will and desire is now to give my son Thomas Cox, should he move to the State of Mississippi my Negro boy, Moses, which boy I only give a lifetime estate in, and that the said Thomas Cox has no power to dispose of said boy in any way or manner whatever nor is said boy subject to the payment of any of the debts of the said Thomas Cox that may now or hereafter be contracted, and I do therefore appoint my son, William Cox, of the State of Mississippi, as trustee for the said Thomas Cox, as far as relates to the above named boy.

6 Item

My will and desire that my daughter Matilda Griffin and Isabelle Hill shall have a lifetime estate in the amount that each one shall receive that each one of the above named daughters shall have the entire use and benefit of said estate during their natural lives and then to the lawful heirs of their body, not subject to any debts whatever; and I hereby appoint my sons James Cox and Jesse Cox as Trustees for the above named daughters.

7 Item

My will and desire is that all that portion of my estate which I leave to my Daughter, Elizabeth Maynor, I give to her during her natural life not subject to any debts whatever and at the death of the said Elizabeth said property to go to the lawful heirs of her body, and I do hereby appoint William H. Maynor, her husband, as trustee for said estate.

8 Item

My will and desire is the portion of my estate which I give to my daughter Mariah Dorman, I give to her during her natural life and to the lawful heirs of her body at her death not subject to any debts whatever and I do hereby appoint Hiram Dorman, her husband, as trustee for said estate.

9 Item

My will and desire is that the portion of my estate which I give to my daughter Mary Barnes, I give only during her natural life and then to the lawful heirs of her body not subject to the payments of any debts whatever, and I do hereby appoint Oscar Barnes as Trustee in said estate.

10 Item

My will and desire that at my death that any or all of my children who may have received any portion of my estate be it little or much prior to my death shall in the language of the law throw it into hotch potch and account for the same without interest.

11 Item

I do hereby constitute and appoint James Cox and Jesse Cox, my sons, executors of this my last Will and Testament.

This the 30th day of September 1856

Asa Cox (Seal)

Signed, sealed, declared and published by Asa Cox as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers who subscribed our name hereto in the presence of said Testator at his special request and of each other this 30th day of September 1856.

CODICIL TO THE ABOVE

Harris County, in the State of Georgia, in the name of God, Amen.

I, Asa Cox, of the County and State afore said being feeble in body but sound in mind, having thought proper to add to my last will and Testament this Codicil, embracing the following items to wit:

Item 1st

For as much as I, Asa Cox, did about the first of March last, give as a present fifty dollars to my children hereinafter named; Cary Cox, James Cox, Jesse Cox, Matilda Griffin, Isabella Hill, Mariah Dorman, Elizabeth Maynor and Mary Barnes. My will is that my other two sons William Cox and Thomas Cox of the State of Mississippi shall each receive the sum of fifty dollars out of my estate making them equal with my other children.

Item 2nd

In my last Will and Testament, I, Asa Cox, gave to my daughter, Isabella Hill, over and above an equal share in my estate One Hundred Dollars, but being dissatisfied, I have thought proper to give to the said Isabella Hill One Hundred Dollars more, making in all, two hundred dollars, which I leave in the hands of my sons James and Jesse Cox and Trustees for the said Isabella. The object of the above sum is to purchase for the said Isabella a home after my death and to further give to the said Isabella my buggy and also thirty dollars annually for her care of me. All of the above I give to the said Isabella Hill over and above an equal share in my estate, because she, the said Isabella, has broken up and taken care of me and my interest while I have been unable to take care of myself when all of my other children have been taking care of their own interest.

This the 28th day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred fifty seven.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Seal,

TEST:

The following is from Jesse's obituary printed in the Columbus,
Ga. newspaper on Feb. 26, 1898:

TO THE MEMORY OF HON. JESSE COX

The subject of this sketch was born in Jones county, Ga., October 25, 1815, therefore he was in his eighty-third year. He was reared on a farm and received only a limited education. Early in life he removed to Muscogee county where he resided a few years. Then he removed to near Mulberry Grove, Harris county, where he had resided for more than forty years, and was a prosperous and progressive farmer. Before the war he had accumulated a large property, mostly negroes, however, which of course he lost besides sustaining other serious losses. Beginning almost from the start again after the war he had by energy, industry, sobriety and good management partially regained his losses, and ever since had enjoyed a competency.

He died Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after an illness of five weeks with kidney trouble.

He had been a member of the Missionary Baptist church for about sixty-eight years, and was a conscientious and devoted Christian.

He was for many years a member of Kivian Lodge of Masons of Harris county and was a prominent and faithful member of the order. In 1878-79 he represented Harris county in the Legislature and served his constituents faithfully and conscientiously, and could have served them longer had he so desired. He had been a justice of the peace for over forty years. In all the relations indicated here he was a faithful, true and honorable man. He had reared a large family of children, the majority of whom survive him. He was twice married. His last wife had no children. She is the aunt of the writer's wife. One sister, Mrs. Mary Barnes, of Harris county, preceded him to the grave about two weeks. He leaves a wife, one sister, (Mrs. Maria Dorman, of Notasulga, Ala.,) seven children and a large number of grand-children, relatives and friends to mourn his death. His children are Mrs. Annie Horn of Bridgeport, Ala., Mrs. Narcissa Binns and Mrs. Carrie Martin, of Harris county, Mrs. Exa Cunningham, of Troup county, Wm. J. Cox, of Grapevine, Texas, John J. Cox and Virgil A. Cox, of this city.

In the estate records of Edmund Dismukes, all of the said children are mentioned except Betheny C., while an additional minor child named Caroline is mentioned. In the will of his wife, Betheny Cox Dismukes, she names no Caroline, but does name a Betheny C. as being one of her five youngest children. From this I deduce that the daughters name was Betheny Caroline.

 m. 1-10-1799 MARTHA ROUNTREE 10 b. 10-4-1783 d. 6-30-1863 Putnam Co., Ga.

CARY, JR. was born in Halifax Co., N. C. and moved with his father to Union Co., S. C. thence to Edgefield Co., S. C., thence to Warren Co., Ga., and in December 1807 to Putnam Co., Ga. He was one of the pioneer families of Putnam Co., settling eleven miles from the town of Eatonton. His plantation is now included in the "Oconee National Forest", and his home is used by the Rangers as a checking station for hunters. The plantation which consisted of over 1,500 acres was deeded to his son, Joseph B. Cox and his wife Frances, with the understanding that he was to have a home with them until he died. His son died before him, and he continued to live with his daughter-in-law and her second husband, Maj. John Thomas Mathis. After the death of Frances Cox Mathis, the home went to the Mathis stepchildren, CARY, JR. was a Primitive Baptist Minister. He joined the Mt. Gilead Church in Putnam Co. in 1811.

On July 4, 1846, CARY, JR. and MARTHA held a family reunion at their plantation. The following list was compiled of attendance:

The following is from Owen's "Dictionary of Alabama Biography"

"Under Pres. Buchanan's administration Benjamin Lloyd was receiver of the land office of the United States in Greenville. He was a Major in the Indian Wars of 1812. The author of Primitive Baptist Hymns wrote, collected, classified and set in order songs of all Divine Worship. He married Naomi Ann Cox, daughter of Rev. Cary Cox, Jr., and Martha Rountree Cox of Eatonton, Ga. (The Rountrees were a prominent family of Edgefield Dist., S. C.) Benjamin and Naomi Lloyd had 19 children."

The following is from "History of Coosa County," the Department of Archives and History, Montgomery, Ala.

"Rev. Benjamin Lloyd, Coosa Co., has been the home of men who have taken places of distinction in the Ministry. Rev. Benjamin Lloyd lived for many years in Coosa. He was a minister of the Primitive Baptist Denomination. He was a man of medium size and carrying a face that would strike the beholder as denoting intelligence, refinement and a gentle spirit. He was much above most Ministers - in education. He was a compiler and publisher of the "Primitive Baptist Hymnal." Several of his sons became Ministers in good standing."

The following was written by William Lloyd's daughter, Mrs. Claudia Gertrude Lloyd Stanford:

"Wm. Holt Lloyd entered the drug business as an apprentice, serving three years with his brother, Dr. Cary C. Lloyd, Greenville, Ala. In 1861 he entered the service of the Confederacy and served as Hospital Steward in the Medical Dept. from 1861-1865. Left penniless at the close of the War, he farmed six years, when again he entered the drug business. Through his efforts the first Methodist Sunday School was organized in Pine Apple, Ala., Aug. 2, 1883, and Church services began.
He also had a part in buying the Cemetery and Parsonage. He was Mayor of Pine Apple for ten years. When the Bank of Pine Apple was established in 1903, he was a charter member and the first President serving nine years."

In 1962 a Baptismal Font was presented to the Pine Apple Methodist as a Memorial to Mary Francis and William Holt Lloyd by their children and grand-children.

From a letter written 1955 to author by Mrs. Wyllamette Gale Williams, Jacksonville, Fla:

"William Thomas, who married sisters d-1886 Albany, Daughterty Co., Ga. and is buried in Albany, Ga. before Narcissus who died in 1894. I have visited in their home many times and know all the family. My Grandmother's third marriage to John Henry Pearson, a brother of the Pearson sisters, and John Henry Pearson, Jr., my half uncle, married his double first cousin, Hallie Rebecca Cox, (dau. of Wm. T. and Aunt Martha, 2nd wife). So you see, my closeness to that family is why I am so positive in my knowledge of them. Then, too, the above dates are found in the family Bible of Wm. T. Cox. I do not have a record of a son, Wm. Cox, who lived in Lumpkin Co., Ga., who was a son of Wm. Cox b-1762 in Va., and a Rev. Sol from Halifax, N. C. The oldest child of Cary Cox, Sr., also a Rev. Sol from Halifax, N. C. m- Mary Horne in Va., his son Wm. was born in Va. and came to Halifax, N. C. 1762, 'a babe in arms' as he stated when he and his brother, Jesse, joined him in N. C. for his pension S-8225."

Notasulga, Macon Co., Ala. m. ELIZABETH MOORE 6 b. 9-12-1804
Greene Co., Ga. d. 9-16-1882 Bell Co., Texas.

The following narratives are taken from the records of, and the stories told by, HELEN EVELYN COX ROBINSON, a daughter of WILLIS and ELIZABETH COX.

"Willis Cox married Elizabeth Moore in Monroe Co., Ga., about nine miles south of Forsythe. They lived in Putnam Co., Ga. four miles from Stanfordville, Talbotton, and then moved to Harris Co., Ga, where they operated a mill on the Mulberry Creek. In 1832, while still living in Harris Co., he had a store on the south side of the Saugahatchie Creek near Moss' Ford on Bulger Branch, in what is now Tallapoosa Co., Ala. In 1834 they moved to Russel Co., Ala., three miles from where Salem was later built. They ran from the Indians on May 9, 1836 and went to grandfather Spencer Moore's home in Monroe Co., Ga., where they stayed for six months. On May 25, 1836, Willis volunteered at Columbus, Ga., for service against the Creek Indians. He served as a private until July 25, 1836, under Capt. Henry Mimms, and Col. James Bell. In 1837 he moved to a place on the Little Saugahatchie Creek in Macon Co. now Lee Co., Ala. Here he lived and died."

"My Father, Willis Cox, was born in 1801 and died in 1872. He was only five feet and ten inches in stature, and though small physically, was of great will, power and strength of character.

He bought and sold lands, thereby making the most of his property. In 1809 he was living in what is now Russel County, about three miles from the present site of Salem. He had an opportunity of selling the land he was living on provided he could give immediate possession, but houses were scarce and he had to have a place for his family.

In that part of the country at that time was a large family of half-breed Indians named Ben or Jim Marshall, who sold Father his home place. There was only a double log house on the land, but Father decided to move into it and live in one end of the double log house with the Indian family in the other until better arrangements could be made.

The Indian was friendly, but to my Mother, they were all just Indians. Things went on smoothly until one afternoon Jim came to the house very much excited, exclaiming, "I am a dead man, Cox-ee; I'm a dead man." He then explained that one of his brothers had been murdered, and he intended to kill the murderer, and this murderer's brother would kill him, then one of Marshall's would kill his slayer, and thus continue as long as any men were left of the two families.

This was the custom of the tribe-- the next of kin was the executioner. Jim took his gun and my father followed him into the woods while my mother waited at home in suspense and fear. It took my father a long time to convince the Indian that it was all unnecessary, that he did not have to kill an Indian and then be killed himself; that the law of the United States would punish the murderer. All that was necessary, urged my father, was to have the murderer arrested and tried.

This was done, and the murderer was executed together with two other men at Columbus, Ga.,—the first execution of the kind ever known in that part of the country.

Jim Marshall always claimed that my father saved his life."

William A. H. Cox fought in the Mexican War under Col.
Seibles and Gen. Taylor. He was at Vera Cruz and capture of Mexico City. He answered the first Confederate call for service in the Civil War, serving in the 18th Alabama Volunteers, Company C and/or H. He achieved the rank of Lieutenant. He was captured at the Battle of Atlanta on August 4, 1864, and sent to the prison camp at Johnson Island.
He suffered considerable privation and contracted dysentery.
He was paroled about the middle of March, 1865.

He came as far as Danville, Va., but could get no further as the rail lines were torn up. He was unable to walk or make it any further on his own, so he returned to Richmond, Va., where he was hospitalized and died. He was buried in the Holleywood Cemetery.

LETTERS TO WILLIS COX AND HIS WIFE ELIZABETH COX, FROM THEIR SON, WILLIAM AUGUSTUS HOLT COX, DURING THE MEXICAN AND THE CIVIL WAR.

In Mexico, 1848

(First page of letter not legible)

When you write you must direct your letter to me, 1st Ala. Bat. Volunteers, Co. D. Capt. Lomase. Lieut. Hardaway is still acting Adjutant Major.

The Mexicans are very much like the Indians, they can tote from 2 to 5 hundred lbs on their backs, at this time a load for a pack mule is two whiskey barrell or 1 bale of cotton. I want you to show this to all of my friends and relatives in the settlement around and give my respects to all inquiring friends.

I have a very excellent Captain, but I do not like Lieut. Copeland. Lieut. Hardaway gave me this paper. I know a few words in Spanish. I must quit.

Your most obt. son,

W. H. Cox

P. S. Show this to James Kelley and write as soon as you receive it.

Yours,

W. H. Cox

Orizava, Mexico
March 28, 1848

Dear Father,

I received yours dated the 10th of Feb. with great satisfaction and now commence to answer it. I am well at this time and have been ever since I landed in Mexico with a little exception of cold, etc. You inquired in yours of Uncle Green and W. Dickerson, I heard Uncle Green & Wiley both at Sanwon about a month after he arrived of the diorea which is very fatal in Mexico particular at Sanwon and on the National road there is some sickness in camps, at this time we have lost 3 of our men since we left Mobile, 1 by the name of Wiggins of Henry City & Vickers & Bradley of the same County.

I do not know of what disease. Old Mr. Mergowen brought me word from Uncle Green & said he was as hearty as he ever saw a man. You may tell Aunt Mary that the letter she gave me for Uncle I kept it until I wore it out in my knapsack & had no chance to send it to him as I am on one road to the city & he on another. So there is no chance of communication between us. It is hardly necessary for me to say that I have not received a letter from home since I left there except the one I answer now. You stated if I wanted money to write for it, I thank you for your proposition, but I do not need and if I did there is ten chances to one whether I would ever receive it or not in a letter for the mail is so irregular. So I just ask you to take care of what little I have there for me until I come home, if I ever do. There is a great talk of peace in camps, but I think it is mostly conjectures. The boys are getting dissatisfied. Some of them on account of our fare it is bad & composed of Sugar & coffee & Beef and Bread. It is light flour bread. You may tell Ma that I have not gotten tired of flour bread yet. I am very well satisfied myself as yet. Mr. Carrol is well with the exception of his finger and it is not sore to hurt. He says that he wants some bacon and greens & that he wants you to write oftener. I am very glad to hear that you have caught the merderers of Mr. Yancy. Tell Mr. Rea that my boots are worn out. I shall have to buy of the Mexicans. Mr. Carrol says that Wm. Todd was to pay him $4.50 cts for the use of the tools that he had in his possession when we left there. I am sorry to hear that Mr. Martin is dead. I have heard that Edward Bayzor was dead for which I was very sorry to hear. The reason I did not receive your letters was that we left Mobile on the 31st of Dec. and landed at Verra Cruz on the 7th of Jan/48. Mr. E. D. Croft is in good health at this time and indeed all of the Riddle Squad, except Mr. Dirden, Mr. Willton and John Dickson. Mr. Dickson is not very bad off I do not think, the rest we left at Verra Cruz.

Description of the Country.

The country from Verra Cruz towards this place is almost an entire perrarie with a few small bushes which is called the Shaperell & it is almost entirely level with a few slough after having passed over some 40 miles of the ways we came to the Mountains which seemed to be a bank of green trees as it is warm all of the time here, though it is pleasant. When we came to the mountains, we crossed a river and the bridge was about 125 feet high and built entirely of rock, after having crossed it the road was paved with rock and about 25 feet wide and run angling up the side of the mountain. Very often one side the mountain overhung us while on the other side was a precipice from 100 to 700 hundred feet. After passing this, we came to another perrarie of about ten miles, I suppose, and then to a little town about as large as Tuskegee though not so handsome though in a beautiful place. We staid there 3 days and then moved on for Arizava which is about 15 miles. We took it without the firing of a gun, it is as large as Mobile and there are a great many more inhabitants. This place is the most beautifully situated I have ever seen. The mountains from 1 to 2 miles high are close at hand all around it. The highest are caped with snow which adds to the scene. There are large creeks come out from the foot of them and the water is very clear and cool. There is some 10 or 20 Churches in this place. As I have neither paper nor time, I must quit and bid you adieu.

Yours most obt.

Camp Menninger
Feb. 18, 1862

Dear Father,

I write to inform you that I am well and trust that this may reach you and find all well. There is very little news although the news from Tenn. is very discouraging. We learn by telegraph that the federals has whipt us badly at fort Donalson and taken many Prisinors. Two Regiments left this place two days ago for Knoxville to Reinforce Gen. Johnson. Gen. Gloadeur, who has Command here still thinks we will have a fight. We have drawn our arms, they are Smoth Bore Muskets, so we are ready for them.

I received a letter from home a few days ago. Gus was still having chills every other day. Elizabeth was not very well. It has rained here for three days incesantly and is likely to continue. The high water has cut off communications by land. Capt. Armstrong is very sick, I think of Typhoid fever but I will not send this until his case takes some regular Course. (evening) The Captain is much better. I have tried for a furlough and failed. We cannot even go to Mobile. I think that there is but little danger of a fight here. We expect to be ordered off but do not know yet.

Feb. 19th, at night

Captain Armstrong, I think, is better and he is going to the Hospital at Mobile tomorrow for a few days. We learn by telegraph that Nashville, Tenn., is in the hands of the Yankees. We are still awaiting the appearance of the Yankees and our officers seem to think that we will have a fight here yet, trust they would receive very warm tokens in the Shape of Blue pills if they were to come on us now.

Our men are anxious to meet them and the news we receive only serve to ~~make~~ them more anxious.

The health of our Regiment is much better than it has been. I think now that the Capt.'s sickness is caused by colds.

I received a letter from Ma yesterday and was glad to hear that she was improving.

If I could have a few days I think I could raise some troops for the service though Ala. has never flinched yet, and I think she will turn out her 12 right soon.

Write soon and let me know all the news Direct as before.

Your affectionate Son etc.

Feb. 23, 1862

Dear Mother,

I received your letter a few days ago and was glad to learn that you had improved and trust that this may find you in still better health. I wrote Pa a letter a few days since and suppose that you have Recd it ere this time. This leaves me well. You wrote in reference to sending me some things. If you wish to send them still, you will have to send them by express as it is impossible to get off on furloughs. So there will be no one passing soon who are soldiers. Mark the Box W. H. Cox, Co. T. 18 Regt. care of Capt. Armstrong and it will come safe. Direct it to Mobile.

We are still receiving some troops, and they have quit removing them from here, it is said that there is sixty five vessels at Shipisland and it is firmly believed that the Yankees will make a demonstration against Mobile this week. I am quite lonesome to as it is Sunday. You may set down lonesomeness as half the cause of this letter.

Capt. Armstrong was improving when I last heard from him. I did not want him to go to the Hospital, but others thought it best for him to go. I think he will be up in a few days. I fear Sloan has written home and caused his parents to be uneasy, but I do not think there is any cause of uneasiness. Our fare is not as good as it has been. Our Company has missed drawing any bacon or pork for three weeks. We can draw salt beef, but the men wont have it. We draw pickle pork every other week, we have pretty plenty of meal, flour, rice, syrup, etc., but without meat it is pretty hard at any time. My shoes are about worn out. My paper is out and I must give out myself.

Your affectionate son,

Camp Menninger
Feb. 26, 1862

Dear Father and Mother,

I write to inform you that I am well and trust that this may find you all well. The reason I wright this so soon is that I have just learned that we are ordered away from here and will start in a few days to Corrinth, Miss., I suppose. And if Ma has not sent those things she spoke of to me she had better not send them as it is doubtful whether I get them or not.

Capt. Armstrong is still in Mobile in the Hospital. We have had the worst storm here last night I most ever saw. It blew down nearly every house and those that were not blown the tops were blown off. There was one man killed. He was a guard at the Hospital and was killed by it falling on him, it was a large two storied building and there was about 200 men in it. A good many of the men was hurt but none of them died yet, if had been day time we should have had a good many killed. I think there was not a tent left standing and many of the troops who were in the tents were hurt, some of them badly. Our men are exulting a good deal at the news of our orders we have just recd. Orders to cook ten days rations. I am in such a hurry about my business that I must close.

I will write again when we stop.

Your affectionate son,

Camp Near Corinth, Miss.
May 15th, 1862

Dear Parents,

I write you again thinking that this may not be unimportant to you although it has been but a short while since I wrote.

I am still well also Enas Haterway, Alex Moore, Willis Edwin are all well, so far as I can learn, though Enos was in the fight the other day at Formingtons which was a small affair and I have not heard from him since. We are very closely kept in camp as we are looking for the fight to come off any day. The Federals are within two miles of our Line of intrichments advancing as it were feeling their way, our Pickets and out Posts are skirmishing nearly all the time and have been for two or three days and nights. The Yanks are advancing on thru different points slowly but very steadily making from $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 mile per day. We would not be surprised at any time hear the fight open. Our men caught one of them yesterday who says that they are 166,000 strong, which of course we do not believe. I do not know how many we have but I recon enough to entertain them. I learned today that they had sent in a flag for the purpose of exchangeing prisoners but cannot vouch for the report. I have just learned that one of the Lieuts. of our Co. who has been home that I ran from the Company at the Shiloh fight, but I could not look for more from a hog than a grunt. I was acting Commissary for the Regt. by order of Col. Shorter at the time and was not expected to engage in it, only by volunteering which I should have done indoubtably from the fact that I had been on severe fatigue duty for 36 hours and did not feel hardly able to stand alone. I remained in the rear and went to sleep as I had not slept any for 36 hours and traveled all the time. Capt. Armstrong has been dropped from our Roll by order of some of our Leuts. and is now gone to Richmond to try to be reinstated. How he will come out I cannot say. There has been a boy about 18 hears old appointed over us. I do not know how he will do but suppose from appearance that he is a better chance than any of our Lieuts. The Company of course is not satisfied. I am now detached from the Company and have as little to do with it as possible, though the men seem anxious for me to return. I shall soon go back to the Company as I learn that there has been a man appointed commissary, but until he comes, I shall continue. I have to draw seven Thousand Rations tomorrow and it is now late so I must close. Give my respects to all of the Reletives and friends.

I am very much oblige to Ma for the presents sent by Mr. Goings, and sorry to learn that Pa was so unwell but trust ere this he is well again.

Yours Affectionally,

Wm. H. Cox

Tupelo, Miss.
July 5th, '62

Dear Father & Mother,

I again write to inform you that I am in good health and trust that this will reach you and find you well.

I read a letter from home a few days ago and learned that my family was well and doing very well, or at least I had no complaint as to want, though I know my folks are needing or will be soon but think I can assist them soon, perhaps before they are entirely out. We were ordered paid at Corinth but have not yet received it, but shall be able to send all of my money home as I have traded some and made at least expenses by swaping & selling Pistols and some other such trades. I now have some money on hand of my own besides Commissary money which I am oblige to keep. I am still at work in the Brigade Commissary department and shall remain at it until I am dismissed from it which I do not think will be soon.

We learn that we have defeated Mc Clellans Army at Richmond, but do not yet know. You will learn the straight of it sooner than I will. Gen Chalmers left here the other day for Ripley, Tippots Co., and we learned we had a skirmish with the Feds who are said to be concentrating there or near there. Runners say that our men fought them there at Ripley yesterday and 5 or six Canon but the report needs confirmation. We expect to go daily to Ripley or some other point towards the State of Tenn. It is thought by those who ought to know that this army will invade Ky. or Tenn. and but upon what grounds I can't say.

Write me often. I have but little time to write on account of business. I still am annoyed with Diarhea but it is so common that we disregard it in camps as sickness. I walk a good deal and my heel pesters me some, but I do not think it will discommode me much. I also have slight pains in my legs some times but think it caused by hard walks. I am anxious to hear from Walter since the hard fighting of the last few days but suppose he will write soon if he lives through the fight and is able. Our men have just fired thirteen guns in honor of the victory won at Richmond.

Your affectionate son,

W. H. Cox

P. S. Direct your letter to Tupelo, Miss. care Capt. Thomason.

Camp Bulah (near Mobile Ala)
Aug. 10th, 1862

My dear parents,

I according to promise, seat myself to write you a few lines which will inform you that I am very well at this time. We left Talhelle (?) on the 1st day of Aug. and a great many expected we would go to Chattanooga but our Regt. had done so much Picket Duty since we got to Corinth that it was thought best to let us rest awhile, consequently we were left here but we have not gained much as our Regt. furnished fifty men per day as Provost Guard, which takes the whole of the Regt. in about six days. We have had other duties to perform besides.

It is four miles to Mobile so you see the walk is pretty heavy to get there.

We are camped on the Spring Hill Rail Road, near Major Evans, who is the father of Augusta the author of the Book called "Bulah" which gives rise to the name of the camp. Miss Bulah, as the soldiers all call her, was in our camp yesterday evening with her father and three sisters. Perhaps it will not be uninteresting to the girls to give a description of her (ie) Miss Bulah, she seems to be about 20 years of age, thin visage and is about as tall as Sister Mary N. Black eyes and hair, (corner of letter torn off.....) cut short. She looks pale.....fair skin if she was not so pale so.....quite intelligent but does not look so..... Sisters look much more like authors than she does. She seem the oldest indeed there is but one other of them grown.

We are pleasantly situated but it is so mighty hot here. I have been assigned to duty as second Lieutenant of the Company but have not got my commission yet. Col. Holteclaw requires all of the officers to uniform themselves. I have bought mine, which cost me $115.00 for coat, pants, and hat, about 5 times what they ought to have cost but we all have to get them.

The uniform is gray Casimier. Swords but little better than mine, that is a little larger, sells for $50.00. I shall not buy one. I also have a sash which I picked up on the Shiloh Battlefield. My sword and sash will save me at least $80.00 this time. Every thing is very high, that is such as soldiers want, a fine good pair of shoes sells for $20.00, boots $35.00, hats from $8.00 to $20.00, and everything else in proportion. Col. Holteclaw has promised me that I should have the first furlough of any officer in our Company, so I expect to get off home as soon as we are paid off which(here the whole top of this page is torn off).....

The officers who I work with in the Brizzard Commissary are gone so I did not get but 5.75 of that pay. I shall incur no more expenses, only for my provisions. We left Gen. Price at Saltillo, who I think will stir up the Feds at Corinth pretty soon, if I am not mistaken in the man. We apprehended no danger of an attack at this place, we are all anxious to hear from Chattanooga.

If you have any good Black leather on hand, please have me a pair of fine good shoes made and send them to me by the first one passing. I want them with a single sole. Some of the shoes you had made for us at Auburn is now very good shoes and good many of the men are after me to send to have them some made. If you can furnish 15 or 20 pair, let me know and I will send you the money and numbers for them. Indeed I could sell 100 pair, but do not care to pester you for more than the Company would want. Write soon, address me as Lieut. W. H. Cox, Co. F 18 Regt, Ala Vols. Nothing more, but

Dear Father,

You perceived by the above that we have been on the move. We marched 9 days and got here two days ago. The dust was very disagreeable. I can give no idea of what will come next. I learn that a good many via Troups are here but do not know. This leaves me very well.

I wish you to send me a goat or deer skin, if you have a large one, when you send me Daniel or two small ones to make me a haversack, as cloth ones grease my clothes so badly.

We have no mail communications here now nor do not know when I will get this off, but suppose by some waggoner.

I will try to write more fully when we get settled.

My love to all, I am as ever,

Yours affectionately,

June 2, 1864

Dear Father and All,

I write again to inform you that I am still well and unhurt. I do not now recollect when I wrote you last, but I have been in all the fights from the beginning to the present time. Our Co. was in quite a severe skirmish the day before yesterday and night before last we had one more killed and 8 wounded in all since we left Dallas. Our right line suffered severly. One officer, Lt. Cohill killed, Capt. Darby and Lts Walker, Linn, Jones and Stephens wounded. Sixteen men killed, 80 wounded and about 80 captured. Yet our men are cheerful and sanguine of success when the struggle comes and are anxious for the fray.

Daniel has turned up at last all safe and sound. Has been faring well. My clothing is dirty and I want them washed and shall employ him for a day or two and then perhaps send him to the rear again. I saw young Mr. Carlisle the other day, two of his brothers has been wounded in these fights, both slight. I suppose our men are skirmishing in front now but little doing. We have some artillery fighting of an evening but not much execution done. Our Gen. Officers seem to think that a general engagement will come off soon, but I think that the fight will consist in skirmishing and maneuvering. But Johnston seems to have headed the yanks here as we occupy the same ground we did a week ago. My paper is out so I must close. Write soon. Direct to Lt. W. H. Cox, 18 Ala. Regt. Dear Father,

You perceive that I am a prisoner of war, was captured near Atlanta, Ga. on the 4th and reached here on the 16th. I find some friends here in like condition with myself. I am scarce of clothing and without money.

If we have any relatives or friends that you know, please let me know them and their addresses. I am well except a cold which I took on my trip to this place. I wish you to either write or send this to my family. You can write anything relative to family or domestic affair., but nothing relative to the war or contraband as our letters are inspected.

Write soon & instruct my wife how to write. Address me Block 5, Mess 3, Johnson's Island, Ohio.

My dear Father,

I write again though I have not heard from you. I am in better health than I have been. If you have not already done so, please ship me by express, 100 lbs of flour, 50 lbs bacon, 20 lbs chewing tobacco, and 10 lbs smoking tobacco, also sugar, coffee, honey or anything of the kind. Box it up and band it with hoops or secure it. Mark it to Lt. W. H. Cox, Prisoner of War, Johnson's Island, Ohio care of Express, Richmonds Via Flag of Truce Boat. Please send it right away if you have any chance, procure me some money, Green Backs or gold or silver and express to me to buy paper and stamps as this is the last I have. I need the above articles very much tho we can live on the rations we draw, but they are short enough. Our quarters are comfortable enough for the time being. Let Lizzie hear from me every time you get a letter. We are allowed to write two letters a week. Perhaps brother Walter can help to forward me a box. If I have a chance I will send to Richmond by exchange prisoners and give them an order on you or any one of our relatives as I am as much in need now as I ever will be.

Write soon. I am as ever,

Dear Father,

I have been looking several days for a letter from you, but as yet have received none. My health is on the decline, yet I trust that I may improve when I receive a box from you which I am anxiously looking for. My diet does not agree with me. We have light flour bread, salt pork, beef and fish and fresh beef three days in the week. We draw hominy or rice or beans, vinegar and salt in abundance. We are allowed to buy from the Sutler a few articles such as brushes, combs, soap and stationary but nothing to eat, but as I have no money I am easy for I could not buy if they sold anything that we might fancy. In writing or sending anything to me, be sure to mark it by flag of truce or via Fortress Monroe. I have written to several but have not yet received a response to any of my letters. I shall address all my letters to you and wish you to write or get one of the girls to write to Lizzie immediately so that she may hear from me through you. We are allowed to write twice a week. I will write you at least twice per month when I get paper. Do not write more than one page at the time for more is considered contraband. I shall keep on foot. I am as ever,

Yours,

THE ROUNTREE FAMILY

The Rountree name is found spelled many ways in the old records, generally evolving from Rowantree - Rowntree - Roundtree and Rountree.

There are several origins given for the Rountree name, the following are from the "Rowntree, and Rountree Family History, 1521-1953" by Joseph Gus Rountree, Jr., of Beeville, Texas.

"The Rowan Tree was held sacred by Norsemen or Vikings from Scandinavia, their conception of the world being a huge Rowan Tree, within whose embrace lay all living things, people and animals. Possibly this boy, found under such a tree, came from Norway or Denmark, as the Vikings settled and colonized Yorkshire, England, in the fifteenth or early sixteenth century. Many of the towns are called by Scandinavian names, such as Whitby, Easby, Newby, Rudby, Kirby and Ingleby."

"Another tradition also handed down among the Rowntrees and Rountrees is that when the Norsemen Warriors took over England, one of the valiant warriors was rewarded by being given a large estate, and on this estate there grew a large number of Rowan Trees, so he took the name of Rowantree from them."

And yet another tradition found among the old records of my Rountree branch is that:

The name had its origin in about 1550 A. D. when a male child was found abandoned on an estate under a "Rowan Tree" in or near Yorkshire, England. The wealthy man who found him, carried the babe dressed in fine clothes, into his house and reared him as his own. He named him "Rowantree," after the tree where he was found, and for his first name he was called "Moses" after the "Moses that is found in the Bible."

The Rountree Coat of Arms is mentioned in the Burke Encyclopedia of Heraldry, 1844, as follows:

"The Coat of Arms of the English family of Rowantree, to which all of the Rountrees, Roundtrees, etc., of America are believed to be related, is described in heraldic terms as follows:

Arms....."Argent, on a chevron asure between three branches of mountain ash vert, as many crescents of the field."

Crest...."A tree proper."

I have been unable to establish a connection between my Rountree Family and that of Joseph G. Rountree's, or any of the Rountree family that has been previously written up. Although my earliest proven ancestor is William Rountree b. ca. 1700 in England, it is highly probable that they are directly related.

WILLIAM arrived in Goochland Co., Va. from England in about 1720. He purchased land, married and lived the remainder of his life there. The proof of his wife's name is found in St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co., Va., where "Dudley Rowntree, son of William and Dorcas Rowntree was baptized 3-2-1728/29." Since his wife was not mentioned in his will dated Oct. 1, 1765, it is presumed she was dead.

40-1 William Rountree b. ca. 1722 Va. d. ? m. 11-4-1759 in Henrica Co., Va., to Jean Serton. (Douglas Register p-43 Va.)

Believed this William to be the William Rountree from Goochland Co., Va., that fought in the Colonial Wars under Capt. Chas. Lewis. It states in the "Colonial Wars, Washington Manuscript, p-104" that he was drafted May, 1756, and on the military payroll July 13, 1756, and was a school teacher, age 34, 6'3" tall, and fair with brown hair. In his will dated September 16, 1766, he appointed his "beloved brother Randolph" as one of his executors. He also requested that his children be kept together, which indicates he had young children. It is also possible that he first married an Elizabeth Turner as some researchers claim.

RICHARDSON moved from Virginia to the Union District of S. C.
by 1774, and then in 1794 to the Edgefield District of S. C.
He served in the Revolutionary War in the S. C. Militia, as a Captain of Commissaries in Col. Brandon's Regiment. There is a story that "Richardson Rountree was captured by some Tories who tried to make him divulge the hiding place of certain supplies.
He refused and they left him tied up in a swamp, when an old servant searched, found and untied him." He was a farmer and merchant and apparantly a successful one as he left personal property that sold for around $10,000, plus his land holdings.
It has erroneously been stated that his wife MILDRED HART was a daughter of John Hart, a signer of the Declaration of Independence.
It is said that he had eighteen children, although the writer only found twelve and some of those may be incorrect.

ANCESTORS OF DORCUS DUDLEY 42

WIFE OF WILLIAM ROUNTREE 40

THE DUDLEY FAMILY

It is through the Dudley line that the author was able to join both the Plantagenet Society and the Magna Carta Society. Because of the unusual number of ancestors in the Dudley line, the usual index system has not been used until EDWARD DUDLEY, the first ancestor emigrant to the American Colonies. All previous ancestors are simply listed by the number of generations until EDWARD DUDLEY. The majority of data has been supplied by Mrs. Gloria Dudley of Seale, Ala., and some data by Mrs. Kate Briggs.

WILL OF JOSHUA MOORE, SR.

Be it known unto all men by these presents that I, Joshua Moore, of the county of Perquimans am weak of body but of sound disposing mind and memory therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body do make and ordain these presents to contain my last Will and Testament for disposal of such worldly goods wherewith it hath pleased the Lord to possess me with in this life.

FIRST: My will is that my just debts be paid in convenient time after my decease. Item: I leave the use of my plantation whereon I now live and the lands thereunto belonging to my wife Hannah Moore - during her natural life but not to have the privilege of cutting her more timber than a sufficiency for plantation uses and fencing. Item: I give to my two sons Joseph and Joshua Moore the plantation and lands whereon I now live to be divided between them as follows: Beginning at the River side of the Peach Orchard fence thence along said fence till it comes to the middle of my land in my apple orchard - thence through the middle of my land to the head line to them and their heirs forever. My son Joseph having the upper part, being the part whereon the houses stand.

Item: I give to my two sons Joseph and Joshua Moore fifty acres of back land joining the Plantation land to be equally divided between by a line beginning in plantation back line and running through the land to the head line so that each one shall have twenty-five acres - to them and their heirs forever. My son Joseph having the upper half. Item: I give to my son Robert Moore the plantation and lands where Robert Newby now lives containing seventy-eight acres to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give to my wife Hannah Moore one horse and Riding Chair, one yoke of oxen cart and wheels, two cows and calves, two feather beds and furniture, six flag bottom chairs to her and her disposal. Also the use and labor of my four youngest negroes till they arrive to the age or during her natural life and if in case any of said negroes are not of age at the time of her decease then my Will that their labor be equally divided between all my children heretofore named.

Item: I give to my Daughter, Sarah Moore one feather bed and furniture and one cow and calf to her and her heirs forever.

Item: I give all the rest and remainder of my estate of what kind-soever to be equally divided amongst my wife and six children viz. Martha Hamlen and Mary Newby, Sarah, Joseph, Joshua and Robert each one of the Seven having an equal share to them and their heirs.

Lastly I constitute and appoint my Son-in-law Robert Newby and my son Joseph Moore executors of this last Will and Testament. Ratifying and conforming this and no other to be my Last Will and Testament.

In Witness whereof I the said Joshua Moore hath hereunto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of the eleventh month in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety.

A. WILL OF JOSHUA MOORE, JR.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN.

I, Joshua Moore, (2nd) of the County of Greene and State of Georgia, being weak in body but of a sound mind and memory, calling to mind the mortality of my Body that it must return to dust and my Soul to God who gave it -- and wishing to dispose of the property which God has blest me with and revoking all others do ordain this to be my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following:
To Wit:

I give unto my wife Phillis Moore the house and plantation and the use of all my negroes (except Sall) during her life or widowhood. Item: I give unto my daughter Nancy Wright one gray stud Colt. Item: I give unto my son Gilly Moore one negro man by the name of Joe for which I have a bill of sale from Charles H. Hardy about twenty years old. After the death of my wife, also one desk and book case to be delivered when called for. Item: I give unto my son Spencer one negro Bob for which I have bill of sale from the administratrix of Doctor W. W. Strain Dec'd --By giving my daughter Nancy Wright two hundred dollars -- Item: I give unto my son Joshua Moore one negro woman named Ester for which I have a bill of sale from Stephen Lawrence, after my wife's death. Item: I give to my daughter Patsey Gatlin one negro girl named Sally for which I have a bill of sale from William Randle to be delivered when called for -- also one tract of land one hundred and thirty three acres for which I have a deed from William Crawford and the house thereon that I began to build to finished and a good Brick Chimney put to it and to be paid for out of my Estate, also two cows and calves and two sows and pigs, to be delivered when called for. Item: I give unto my son Samuel all that Tract of Land that I bought of and have a deed from James R. Jenkins after my wife's death also one negro boy named George for which I have a bill of sale from William Randle, by paying to my son Joshua Moore two hundred dollars to be delivered after my wife's death, also one corner cupboard, also one still and apparatus. Also two feather beds and furniture also two cows and calves, also two sows and pigs. Item: my will and desire is that the land I bought of James Simmons shall be sold and be equally divided between my five grandchildren Samuel U. Gatlin, Wingate W. Gatlin, Angelina Gatlin, Alla Gatlin and Hilliard S. Gatlin or the survivors of those already named and the money to be lodged in the hand of my Executors to be dealt out to them as they come of age after all my just debts and funereal charges are paid. I bequeath unto my wife Phillis all my property of every description during her life which is not otherwise bequeathed and at her death to be equally divided amongst all my children. This being my last Will and Testament, I appoint my son Gilly Moore my sole Executor.

B. LAND GRANT RECORDS

Letter signed by Jane F. Smith, Chief Interior Section, for Oliver W. Holmes, Chief Archivist, Natural Resources, Records Branch.

"The records of the General Land Office in the National Archives show that military bounty-land warrent 8768 for 160 acres, Act May 6, 1812, was issued to Joshua Moore of Feb. 13, 1817, for services as a private in Captain Chumm's Company, 24th Regiment, United States Infantry, War 1812. On Dec. 23, 1817 he used the Warrent to obtain a patent to the Southwest Quarter, Section 12, Township 7, North, Range 7 West, 4th Principal Meridian, Ill. which lies in what is now Hancock Co., Ill. The Patent is recorded in "War of 1812 Patents," Vol. 11, p-313 of the Bureau of Land Management Patent Records, Dept. of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

SPENCER moved from N. C. to Greene Co., Ga., then to Monroe Co., Ga., then to Macon now Lee Co., Ala in ca. 1839. He bought a large plantation between Auburn and Notasulga, Ala., on the Moore Road, which was named after him. He was a Mason and an active supporter of Auburn's Female College which he helped organize in 1846. He served in the War of 1812 and the Indian War of 1836, for which he received a land grant. He did not serve a full term because of illness, but paid a man to take his place. He was in Capt. W. Henry Cox's Company of Ga. Militia. He formed a land company dealing in Indian Land, his partners being Milton Tarrer, Willis Cox and Orrin Cox.

SPENCER buried three wives, being outlived by the fourth. His third wife, Monemia Kinsey had two boys, William and Alonzo Kinsey, and a child by him, Joshua Britten Moore (12-13).

RICHARD HARGRAVE 800 b. 1612-1615 England d. Will dated 11-21-1686, approved 1-17-1686-87 m. ca. 1645

RICHARD came from London in Jan. 1634 on the "Bonaventure," and gave his age as 20. His age was confirmed by a deposition made 4-16-1672 when he stated his age as 60, (N.E.G.R. Vol. 47, p-201). On 16 Feb. 1652/3 he was granted 500 acres on Broad Creek, Elizabeth River in Lower Norfolk Co, 150 a part of patent granted to John Watkins 16 May 1644, and by him sold to said Hargrave, 17 Oct. 1646 and 100 a for transporting two persons (Cavaliers and Pioneers, by Nell M. Nugent). He was evidently a Puritan for on 15 Dec. 1654 he was one of a Grand inquest that petitioned for a "Godley Minister," thus showing his Puritan leanings. In April 1674, he was granted 200 a. for transporting four persons. He conveyed land to son Benjamin on 12 Aug. 1673, and appraiser of estate of William Emperor on 6-16-1684. Will 21 Nov. 1686, same approved 17 Jan. 1686/7. He names sons Richard and Benjamin Hargrave, daughter Margaret Roberts, and son-in-law Mr. Arthur Mosely. His will witnessed by Edward Mosely and William Hancock. (Norfolk Wills, Mc Intosh, Vol. 1, p-100)

(Dau. of JOHN PEAD, Will proved 4-15-1678 Norfolk Co., Va.)

On 16 August 1682, Ann Harding, an orphan, complained that Richard Hargrave, Jr., kept her out of her lands and on 17 of Aug., 1682 he was before the Court for refusing to have a child baptized. On 15 May 1693 he petitioned in right of his wife, Pembroke, one of the daughters of John Pead, deceased, for a portion of her father's estate. (Norfolk Deeds, Book V) On 10 June 1685, he was among the tithables in Surray Co, and on March 1699, made his brother, Benjamin Hargrave, his attorney to acknowledge a deed for him in Norfolk.

C. WILL OF HUGH GRAHAM 28

In the name of God Amen. The 9th day of October in the year of our Lord God, 1734.
I, Hugh Graham of the State of N. C. County of Rowan, being sick and weak in Body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks given unto God. Therefore calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament...That is to say Principally and first all I give and recommend my Soul unto the hands of God that gave it. And for my body, I recommend it to the Earth to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors not doubting that at the Resurrection I shall receive the same again...the mighty power of God... and as touching such worldly estates where with it hath pleased God to bless me in life...give, devise and dispose of the Same in the following manner and form: First, I give and bequeath to Sarah, my dearly beloved wife, all and Singular my household Goods & movables of any kind whatever with plow & utensils & whatever..Tools are necessary for the occupation and improvement...Lands while she liveth thereon, also likewise I ordain by this my Last Will & Testament that my wife Sarah Graham & Charles Loneless of State & County aforesaid is hereby appointed my Sole executors. I also impower them to pay all my just and Lawful debts of every kind whatsoever, to be levied out of my Estate...ordain my Lands Messuages & Tenements, all & Singular...the care of said wife Sarah...to be freely enjoyed uninterruptedly, while she continues in the Estate & I leave her, and if it should please her after my Decease to enter into a second marriage,
I the ordain my Lands Messuages & Tenements all & Singular to be to the best advantage, and money or monies arising from Rents thereof to equally be divided amongst my children, Mary, Frances and Susannah Graham until they come to age of Maturity, at which time I then ordain my said Lands & Tenements to be Sold to the best advantages & money or monies thence arising, to be appropriated equally to the use of my Said Children and divided equally amongst them. I also ordain & appoint whatever Beasts, Horses or Cattle, that I have not left to my Wife's disposal to be sold and the money or monies thence arising to be appropriated to the payment of just Debts aforesaid at the discretion of my said Executors & the residue applied to the use of my Said Children. And I do hereby utterly disallow revoke & disannull all & every other former Wills & Testaments, legacies, bequests & executors bequeathed, ratifying & conforming this & no other to be my last Will & Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand & Seal the day & year above written.

Hugh Graham (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, published pronounced and Declared, by the said Hugh Graham as his Last Will & Testament in presence of us the subscribers.

GEORGE HALL 60 b. Before 1735, Pa. or Ireland d. After 1800
m. FRANCES ?

GEORGE probably moved to Rowan Co., N. C. from Pa., around 1765, probably with his brother Hugh Hall, Sr. There is a possibility that both were brothers of James Hall, one of the early settlers of Iredell and Rowan Co. He was recorded on the Rowan Co., N. C. tax list of 1768, and mentioned in the Court Minutes as being Constable in the Rocky Creek-Hunting Creek area Feb. 8, 1772. He moved to Greene Co., Ga. with his son, Hugh Hall, Jr., and his brother Hugh Hall, Sr., about 1785.

NAME INDEX

The author has made every effort to insure that this index is complete and correct. Although every name listed is believed to be a different person, there may be some duplication. All females are listed under their maiden names with some occasionally also listed under their married names. The christian names that are typed all in capitals and followed by their base index number or letter are either direct ancestors or children of Jesse B. Robinson 3rd and his wife Helen Cox. All other numbers are page numbers.
